May Signal New Red Dry Season Offensive

Heavy Fighting Erupts In Viet's Central Highlands, Coastal Area

SAIGON (AP) — Heavy fighting was reported today in South Vietnam's jungled central highlands and along the coastal lowlands. It could signal the start of new dry season offensives by the Communists in the two areas.

Troops of South Korea's White Horse Division reported killing 113 North Vietnamese in fighting Monday and today near the division base headquarters in the lowlands 205 miles northeast of Saigon. Korean casualties were reported light.

In a series of sharp clashes in the central highlands 300 miles north of Saigon, 20 American paratroopers and 18 North Vietnamese troops were killed. The units of the U.S. 173rd Airborne Brigade also reported 27 men wounded.

Two companies of the U.S. 4th Infantry Division clashed with a well-armed and entrenched force eight miles southwest of Dak To in midafternoon and fighting raged until just before dark.

The U. S. Command said 10 Americans were killed and 35 wounded. A spokesman said 102 Communists had been killed in scattered fighting around Dak To, 270 miles north of Saigon, in the past two days. Most were identified as North Vietnamese regulars.

As the ground fighting picked up, U.S. Air Force fighter-bombers took advantage of a break in the northeast monsoons Monday and flew through heavy Communist defenses to give North Vietnam's heartland its heaviest pounding in a week.

The American raiders attacked the sprawling Gia Thuong military storage area three miles northeast of the center of Hanoi for the first time in the war, shot down two MIG17s during a strike on the Kep airfield 38 miles northeast of the capital, and attacked a vehicle repair plant nine miles north of Hanoi and the Hanoi transformer station for the first time since last May.

Although Hanoi claimed five U.S. planes were shot down, the U.S. Command reported only one loss, an F105 Thunderchief it said was brought down by ground fire northwest of Hanoi. The pilot was listed as missing in action. It was the 727th American combat plane officially reported lost over the North.

In the coastal lowlands, a Korean spokesman said, an estimated 300 North Vietnamese army regulars moved out of a hideout in the Ho Neo mountains and had been threatening Korean units for the last two weeks.

The spokesman said Korean forces pursued the Communists and caught up with them near two villages only about two miles from the Koreans' base area.

In the central highlands, entrenched North Vietnamese regulars opened up Monday afternoon with heavy small arms and automatic fire on units of the U.S. 173rd Airborne Brigade searching an area hit by B52 bombers last Saturday.

Aided by ground reinforcements, artillery and 67 strikes by Air Force fighter-bombers, the paratroopers assaulted the fortified Communist positions. U.S. Headquarters said the reinforcements broke through the Communists' flank and overran the position, but the main force apparently had already pulled back.

Intelligence officers are predicting more bloody combat for central Vietnam now that the moonsoon rains are moving north. The forecast is based on reports of major North Vietnamese infiltration of the central jungles during the first six months of the year.

Vote Seen 'Heavy' In Some Areas As Tri-State Ballots

Cleveland's Mayor Race Eyed Today

Apportion Plan Lone Statewide Issue On Ballot

By The Associated Press

Ohioans by the thousands faced cold weather as they headed outside to vote in Tuesday's statewide elections.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown predicted a record 2.85 million would cast ballots in this off-year election, despite temperatures predicted for the 30s today.

Only one statewide issue was on the ballot — a legislative apportionment proposal —while the big race was in Cleveland, where Carl B. Stokes hopes to become the first Negro mayor of a major metropolitan city in the United States.

In Greenville, Mayor Tillman D. Hathaway did not make it to the poll today.

Hathaway, 63, running for a fifth term, collapsed and died of a heart attack while giving his final campaign speech Monday night.

He was stricken at a Democratic party rally at the Greenville Country Club. He was paired against Dan Hawley, the Republican hopeful.

At Octa, a small village of 96 people in Fayette County, no one filed to run for office, so write-in votes will determine who will run the government.

On the line statewide were 15,000 local offices to be filled, 1,364 local questions and issues, and hundreds of local bond issues and tax levies, and 24 seats on the State School Board.

In Cleveland's nationally watched election, Stokes, a lawyer and state representative, had a thin, pre-election edge over his Republican opponent, Seth C. Taft. Cleveland hasn't elected a GOP mayor in 26 years.

Mayor's races also are on the ballots in Columbus, Toledo and Youngstown. In Youngstown, Mayor Anthony B. Flask, a Democrat, was opposed by Republican Hugh A. Frost, first Negro candidate for that city's top office.

In Cincinnati, 22 candidates are running for nine seats on City Council. The council will name a successor to Republican Mayor Walton H. Bacrach, who is retiring.

THIS SCENE WAS repeated many times today at polling places throughout the city. Mrs. Lawrence Zollinger is shown stepping from a voting booth after casting her ballot at City Hall.

Average To Heavy Balloting Reported In Beaver County

East Liverpool cast a comparatively light vote in its municipal election in the first four hours after the polls opened this morning, while Beaver County observers reported a turnout that ranged from "average" to "heavy" in balloting on borough and county officials.

East Liverpool cast 1,201 forenoon ballots today, against 1,165 at the same time in the last comparable election in 1965. The city's total vote two years ago was 5,813.

A sharp rise is expected this afternoon and early this evening, they said.

Some 300 high school students marched through Wellsville Monday afternoon on behalf of the school levy.

At Midland, the turnout was reported "heavy" in all five precincts. The borough is balloting on seats on council and the school board.

A fairly heavy forenoon vote also was reported at East Palestine, where some 400 to 450 had cast ballots by 11 a. m.

On the basis of the morning's turnout, East Liverpool's overall vote today may go slightly above the pre-election forecast of 5,400. But the forecast will not be exceeded greatly, as East Liverpool has 1,000 fewer qualified voters than at the municipal election in 1965. There are 7,698 registered to vote today.

Local Marine Wounded On Viet Patrol

An East Liverpool Marine is listed in "very serious" condition in a DaNang hospital with body wounds received while on patrol at Tuing Tin, Vietnam, last Friday.

Marine Cpl. Edward Vollberg, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vollberg of 432 W. Drury Ln., sustained mortar shell fragments of the stomach and lower bowel region and a fractured jaw.

His parents were notified officially Saturday by a Marine major and a physician and telegrams have been received on their son's condition, Mrs. Vollberg said.

A 1963 graduate of East Liverpool High School, Cpl. Vollberg has been in the service more than two years and in Vietnam 13 months. He was expected home some time in December. He is married to the former Penny Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Judy of Claibourne Ave.

20,000 Additional Guards, Reserves Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has authorized almost 20,000 additional standby troops for the National Guard and Army Reserves "for state missions." An Army spokesman said this means primarily riot-control duties.

The spokesman said it hasn't been determined which states will receive the new Guard units. The additions in the Army Reserves will be absorbed in existing units, he said.

Fatal Car Crash Blamed On Damage To Steering

By PAUL YOUNG

LISBON — Defense counsel in a traffic manslaughter trial told the jury this morning the evidence will show the car was damaged in a mishap shortly before the fatal crash.

Ralph Sheets, 19, of N. Shady Lane, East Liverpool, was the first witness called this morning by Assistant Prosecuting Atty. James D. Primm Jr.

Sheets was a classmate of Daryl Lee Jackson, 18, of 1068 Jennings Ave., who is on trial for unintentionally causing the death of Jerry Canne, 17, formerly of 143 Thompson Ave.

All were on their way home from a senior class party at Grimms Bridge following the East Liverpool High School senior assembly last May 26.

Primm said the evidence will show young Jackson was driving recklessly and too fast for the condition of the road, as the indictment charges.

JOHN BAUKNECHT of East Palestine, defense counsel, said the evidence will show that the accident was due to impaired steering of which Jackson had no knowledge.

Sheets testified there were approximately 100 young people at the party along the creek. He said the word of the party was passed at school that day.

Sheets said he and a companion, Garry Morris, the second witness called, had helped get Jackson's car out of a field where it was stuck with the right front fender against a tree.

Sheets and Morris were in Sheets' sports car following Jackson's Volkswagen from the picnic area. Sheets said he saw dust ahead, but did not see the accident. He testified he went blank after seeing the four young men in and around the car which had crashed into rocks, then hit a tree.

Sheets said Canne was on the ground by the passenger side of the car; Thomas A. Standley, 17, of 306 Vine St., was walking around in a daze; Jackson was on the ground by the driver's side, and Ronald Wine, 18, of 951 Huston Ave., was in the back seat, bleeding badly.

Jury Indicts Ohio Man In Weirton Case

WEIRTON (AP) — Charles Ravnell, 32, of Campbell, Ohio, has been indicted by a Brooke County grand jury on three counts, including murder, in connection with the shooting death Sept. 27 of Weirton grill owner Charles Nagy.

Ravnell was found by police several blocks from Nagy's body the day of the shooting.

Mrs. Nagy told police she and her husband were accosted by two men who attempted to rob them. The Nagys broke away and Mrs. Nagy escaped, but not her husband.

Police reported Nagy had with him a large sum of money to be used to cash payroll checks that day at his business.

The second assailant has not been found.

Ravnell is charged with murder, attempted armed robbery and felonious assault. He is being held in Brooke County Jail in lieu of $95,000 total bond.

Arraignment has been set for Thursday in Brooke County Circuit Court.

Protection Approved For Jackie, Children

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted to provide Secret Service protection for Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two children for another 15 months, overriding objections by a Republican who expressed doubt the taxpayers would approve the $210,000 expense.

Rep. H.R. Gross of Iowa said Monday the widow of the assassinated president should employ provate protection if she needs it.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union showed off six new weapons today, including a huge intercontinental ballistic missile, and also hauled an orbital missile through Red Square on the 50th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

The red-nosed new intercontinental missile, about 100 feet long, came just before a missile shown on May Day 1965 that has been claimed capable of striking from orbit.

City Staff Assured Extra Pay On Holiday

Council enacted an ordinance Monday night providing specifically for premium pay for unsalaried city employes on Veterans Day Saturday, making good on another of its agreements in wage negotiations last spring.

The legislation provides persons who do not work will collect the equivalent of eight hours' wages. Persons who are required to work will collect the same holiday pay, plus the usual hourly rate for the time actually spent on the job, the bill says. Salaried workers will not receive additional pay unless they actually work on the holiday, the ordinance says.

The measure does not cover police and firemen. Council earlier enacted legislation granting members of the two department wage raises in lieu of holiday pay.

Youth Ruled Not Guilty In Shooting Case

An Ohioville youth, charged with assault with intent to kill in the shooting of a companion, has been found not guilty in Beaver County Court.

Judge John M. Sawyer, in issuing the opinion, also dismissed a complaint that Lysle L. Waddle of Industry RD 1 is a delinquent child.

The opinion is the result of a juvenile hearing conducted last June to determine whether or not the shooting of David Allen Job, also of Ohioville, Industry RD 1, was an accident.

Job, then 14, was shot with a double-barrel 12-gauge shotgun in November 1966. He suffered major abdominal wounds.

The gun was held by Waddle, then 17. The two were hunting near Ohioville at the time.

The judge said his opinion was not to determine whether or not Waddle might be liable for a civil action. The court said it was handled as a criminal case.

Judge Sawyer said, "In order to hold Waddle guilty, the court would have had to find Waddle intentionally shot the gun or exhibited such gross negligence as to amount to malicious intention to do harm. We do not find an intention or such gross negligence to do harm."

It was pointed out in the opinion that in testing the safety of the gun in court, it was found defective by both the defendant and police officer, who had had the gun in his possession since the shooting.

The "preponderance of usable evidence indicates this shooting occurred as the result of Waddle's 'playing around' and not his deliberate intention to shoot David Job," the ruling said.

Both youths indicated in testimony the safety catch had been put on at the time of the shooting, negating the idea of intention. The shooting occurred after the boys had been hunting together for several hours.

Flock Tracks -What Else? The Birds

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Radar is for the birds at the University of Colorado.

Dr. Warren L. Flock is tracking migration of birds on radar, hoping to learn more about the possible role of radar in reducing the danger of airplane - bird collisions.

Flock, an electrical engineer, said the research eventually may provide a basis for predicting bird migrations and guiding planes over or around large flocks of birds.

He said the Air Force spends about $10 million a year repairing aircraft damaged in collision with birds. He said in 1965, 75 jet engines — costing $130,000 apiece — had to be replaced because of bird strikes.

There have been numerous accidents because of birds.

The Beaver County United Fund has achieved its first million dollar campaign goal.

All eight local UF groups exceeded their quotas for the fourth consecutive year in the month-long drive which concluded last week with a county total of $1,031,203. The goal was $1,000,643.

The annual campaign, which is the ninth in Beaver County, will conclude officially Nov. 21 when a countywide testimonial dinner will be held at the Penn-Beaver Hotel.

Charles D. Henderson, county chairman, said, "I consider it a privilege to chair this year's history-making United Fund Drive. Thanks to the efforts of thousands of volunteers and contributors in Beaver County, we again can be assured of another year of vital community services financed by the annual drive."

Midland UF hit 102.5 per cent this year, collecting $75,986. Its quota was $74,116.

The UF supports more than 40 agencies and services aiding more than 55,000 persons in Beaver County.

Motorist Jailed And Fined $350

EAST PALESTINE — A Washingtonville man involved in a recent auto accident at Unity was fined and jailed by County Judge Barry Dickson Monday.

Robert Allen Hutcheson of Washingtonville was fined $300 and costs and sentenced to 20 days in jail for driving while intoxicated, $25 and costs for intoxication and $25 and costs for resisting arrest.

He was cited after a mishap in Unity when he was found in his car about four - tenths of a mile away.

Charles Samuel Gorby of Negley RD 1 was fined $15 and costs each on two counts of failure to transfer license registration. He was cited while towing another vehicle.

Cars Of Local Men Involved In Mishap

Two East Liverpool men were involved in a two - car accident investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon Monday at 4:30 p. m. on Valley Ave. just outside the city limits.

The patrol reported that a car driven by David H. Buckel, 36, of 884 Valley Ave. struck a 1954 sedan operated by Robert Adams of 1617 Penn. Ave.

Buckel told the patrol that Adams pulled from a private drive into the path of his auto.

Both cars received only light damage and neither driver was cited.

Post Offices To Be Closed On Saturday

There will be no window service or deliveries Saturday at East Liverpool's postal facilities, Postmaster Samuel W. Brown announced today, because of Veterans Day, a federal holiday.

The main office downtown, Station A in East End and the Calcutta branch will be closed.

Brown said mail will arrive and depart on an abbreviated holiday schedule.

It will be put into the patron lock boxes at the main office and the lobby will remain open until the usual 9 p. m. closing. Collections will be made according to the holiday schedules printed on the collection boxes. Special delivery and perishable mails will receive the usual daily delivery.

Although under the new federal holiday law the day previous is the day on which the federal employes will receive time off, this will not apply to the postal service, Brown said, with full service being maintained on Friday, with all routes being covered.

About two-thirds of one's body weight is accounted for by water.

Hancock Housecleaning

It continues to intrigue most area residents that major gambling operations such as The Red Dog on Route 30 near Chester and the Lantern Inn on Route 66 near Waterford Park fall into federal rather than county jurisdiction.

Hard work by Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Internal Revenue Service Agents over several months laid the groundwork for the two raids in which more than 70 men were involved Sunday morning.

The arrests marked the general pattern of gambling citations in Hancock County over the past 20 years — occasional serious raids by West Virginia State Police and largescale arrests by Federal agencies such as in the Jockey Club in 1963.

Hancock authorities stage some visitations—they arrested a Weirton cigar store owner at the time the FBI and IRS men were cracking the security arrangements at the Red Dog where $17,000 in gambling money was seized, along with 14 slot machines, three blackjack tables, five dice tables and two roulette wheels.

But the Hancock County Sheriff's department and Prosecutor's office seem unable to curb the really big shows which draw federal attention, which in fact attract notice throughout the district.

One West Virginia newspaperman wrote last week:

"County and State authorities look the other way in Hancock County where a plush gambling casino is reportedly operating on Route 66 across from Waterford Park. It is strictly big action . . .Pretty girls in mini costumes serve the drinks. According to one source, a sign on the wall reads, 'We promise not to loan money because the banks promise they won't operate dice tables.' "

Plenty of people in Hancock County were aware of the Red Dog and Lantern Inn operations, as well as other illegal gambling and liquor sales in the county which have gained a notoriety throughout this section of the United States as a place "where the action is."

The unsavory atmosphere of criminal activities, the practice of "pay off" and the attitude of hypocrisy (the luxurious Red Dog's liquor was watered, agents reported) which breed in the shadow of these casinos and other unlawful operations hurt Hancock County's good people and its educational and cultural potential and jeopardize the mental and moral standards of young people who become aware of corruption.

The expense of investigating and staffing these raids, then prosecuting the offenders adds up to a big take of revenue which every federal taxpayer should resent.

Hancock County should not depend upon the FBI and the IRS to do its housecleaning. Either the State Police and State Liquor Department should boost surveillance and enforcement in the county, or the Courthouse authorities should decide to do their duty as required by law.

Dissent Is Here To Stay

The crux of the Vietnam unity dispute was made clear when three Democratic senators issued statements rebutting President Johnson's charge that dissenters are hampering both the war and peace effort.

The senators spoke their piece to different audiences, but their messages were similar. They all were saying the right to legal dissent is a cornerstone of American democracy and that sweeping disunity under the rug of national interest is inviting disaster.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana warned against an infallibility complex that leads to blinking at the undisputed fact of deep divisions over Vietnam.

Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon called on the President to keep open all legal channels of protest.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota pointed to the possibility of a wider confrontation growing out of Vietnam as an important reason for debating the issue.

An American is constitutionally guaranteed the right to express his opinion — and it doesn't have to agree with that of the establishment.

The administration has had a long time to prove its point. The record is there for everyone to see. The individual can draw his own conclusions on whether or not the administration has succeeded.

We condemn rabble-rousing brawlers who choose illegal means to show their protest. They are discrediting their crusade and their country.

We do believe there are those who love their country dearly but have strong convictions about the wrongness of the war.

They not only have a right to that opinion, they have a right to let the President know how they feel.

That is what our country is all about.

President Johnson can create an artificial atmosphere of unity at the top by managing news, muzzling officials, etc., but he is learning — in a manner that leaves no doubt — that he cannot manage public opinion to suit his purpose.

The Ideal Snow Job

There is nothing like November's first snow to set the mood of the season.

The mood depends upon the individual.

There are pessimists who envision stalled autos, mountains of snow to shovel, failing heating systems and temperatures cold enough to drive a mini-skirt into hibernation.

You can tell these people by their frowns, the edge in their voices and Scrooge-like remarks.

There is an alternative.

It is all in the mind. The secret is to take your cue from happy literature. The "Over the river and through the woods" idea. Thoughts of a gala family Thanksgiving dinner insulate against the cold.

And wouldn't it be nice to be "Snowbound" for a couple of days — free of daily drudgery and cares?

Whose heart is so calloused that he cannot respond to the spirit lifting thoughts of a "White Christmas."

Mind conditioning is the way to beat the weather in our part of the country.

Think of it in this way: In the 365-day weather pie, November is the pumpkin slice piled high with snowy frosting.

There is one drawback to our suggestion, it is not a cure-all. It can be expected to be effective until Christmas — after that you are on your own to cope with January, February, March and April.

Purely Personal Observations

Chronological note: My generation was wearing turtleneck sweaters before mop-heads making a big thing of them today were a gleam in the eye of their still-to-be fathers. Mostly, they were worn by college kids and thugs.

Out in the suburbs, we are getting ready to open hunting season in the city. We will show up inside the city limits at dawn with our dogs, weapons, bottles and killer instincts, itching to shoot everything that moves, tear down fences and terrorize the housewives.

We thought it was shrewd to invite someone for Thanksgiving dinner who owns a chain saw, then to mention it would be nice for them to come early and work up an appetite. "You got any trees you want cut down?" was the inquiry. Guess what was the answer.

If you want to know what happened to baseball, look at it this way. How many baseball fans would spend all Sunday afternoon watching professional baseball on television. Yet, millions of football fans never tire of the rapid-fire action of professional football. They fill the stadiums and the TV channels.

Population figures have been made meaningless by urban sprawl. Cities no longer can be defined. Even urban areas keep getting vaguer as superhighways make it feasible to move farther away from central cities.

It seems to me if toll roads and expressways can afford reflectors to keep motorists oriented after dark, railroads could afford to put reflectors on freight cars to keep them from being rammed by motorists in after-dark tragedies.

Bang, Bang!

At The Front

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

The operations room of the 24th U.S. Army Recruiting Corps was tense with excitement. Gen. Rubicon, the commanding officer, came in with his staff and stared at the map on the wall.

"Any news from the front, colonel?"

Art Buchwald

"Yes, sir. We've heard from the Dartmouth patrol. They managed to get on campus unseen and got their card table set up in the administration building. They report they signed up four students for Officers Candidate School before they were discovered and had to retreat."

"Good show. Any word from Princeton?"

"No, sir. Not for two days. The last report we had was that Capt. Reilly and his men were surrounded by students who wouldn't let their car move. They're running short on water and food, and I don't know how much longer they'll be able to hold out."

"CALL THE Air Force and ask them if they'll make a drop."

" I did, sir, but the weather's been bad and all planes are grounded."

"Dammit, colonel, we've got to get relief to them somehow."

"I know, sir. We were thinking of sending in a relief force, but we've used up all our reserves at Harvard."

"What's the situation at Harvard?"

"Lt. Shivers is trapped with three recruiters in the office of the Harvard Crimson."

"Lt. Shviers?" a major cried. "That's my brother. How can you send a kid up to a place like that?"

"Easy does it, major," Gen. Rubicon said grimly. "Lt. Shivers knew what he was doing when he volunteered for the 24th U.S. Army Recruiting Corps."

"Sure, you can say that standing here in this nice comfortable office seven stories underneath the Pentagon. But what about the kids you send out day after day to Ohio State and the Universities of Michigan, Wisconsin and Berkeley? What are you running, a suicide mission?"

"Major, I will overlook your insubordination because I know how you feel about your brother. But I would just like to assure you that I'm not heartless. How do you think I feel every time I send a patrol out to Yale or Columbia or Oberlin? Sure, I know they may never come back. But we've got a job to do, and I can't let emotion stand in the way of the Army's recruiting plans. Somebody's got to do the dirty work. War is hell, son."

"What does he say?"

"His message reads: 'Send us more students.' "

The general smiles. "Isn't that typical of Reilly, Colonel? I want to recommend him for the distinguished recruiting cross, and send out that quote to the press. We need a hero at a time like this."

"Sir, the 1st Provisional Recruiters Brigade has just got back from Stanford," a staff officer says.

"How many missing?"

"Five. Schwartz, Weatherill, Puchinski, Kelly and Ascereiil were last seen going into the student union to rescue a Dow Chemical Co. recruiter and they never came out."

The general looks off into space and says, "Why do the good ones always go first?"

Integration, Not Separation

Doctors and nurses, as well as relatives and friends, have noted that a patient's complaints increase rapidly after illness has turned toward recovery.

It is safe in this case to draw a likeness between the angry convalescent and an element in society which grows more militant and articulate at the very moment when its well-being is in a state of marked improvement.

There are plenty of historical examples of this behavior in collective society. De Tocqueville noted that prosperity in France showed a greater gain in the decade before the revolution began in 1789 than it had in generations before.

I have always believed that if our Civil War had not been ignited by extremists on both sides, slavery might have been ended through recognition in the South that it was unprofitable and a deterrent to white and black populations alike.

WE ARE now witnessing the same perverse turn of events in what we call the Negro problem. The lot of the Negro has improved notably in the last 15 or 20 years, more so than anyone could have predicted earlier. The Negro revolution in our cities comes as there are signs of improvement.

Congress and the courts have exhausted their ingenuity in assuring Negroes civil and political rights. Governments and private agencies have spent vast sums in improvement of living conditions in the Negro communities.

Educational opportunities have been open to the black population in the North and in the South.

Employers of good will have stretched their qualifying rules to provide employment for Negroes.

The shadow of destitution has been lifted by new programs of relief.

But this has not quieted tensions. Peaceful petitioning has too often ended in violent insurrection. Demands for equality have turned from the specific to generalized revolts.

A strange turn in this revolt is notable in the thinking of certain elements among better-educated Negroes. I listened to a lecture by a Negro who had enjoyed a good education at Columbia. He said, in effect, that what had been done for racial equality was itself resented because it came as a gift or a charity from the whites.

He told his white audience they knew little of what was in the black man's mind. The expression "black power," he said, meant what the blacks should win for themselves. Occasionally in his discourse there appeared the expression "black nationalism."

One might infer that integration as a goal is no longer considered relevant. Instead, there has developed something vaguely referred to as "militant separatism."

At Harvard an organization has grown up called the Harvard-Radcliffe Assn. of African and Afro-American Students.

Objective of this movement seems to be to reject integration in campus life and organizations and to draw Negroes into wholly black enclaves.

If this movement among better-educated Negroes means they will dedicate themselves to self-help within Negro communities, it could be applauded by the white people who have labored so long in civil rights endeavors. But the suggestion is that these "resegregationists" want nothing shared by the white majority.

My own reflection upon this strange turn in racial affairs is that it is futile. The Negro minority and the white majority must, after all, live, work and learn on the same piece of real estate known as the United States. Neither the minority nor the majority can move away into another part of the world.

The norms of community living and political union have been determined by long evolution. Peaceful coexistence is possible only if these if equality of opportunity, which is now approaching, should be made impossible by a sort of militancy toward peaceful integration.

"A house divided against itself" is an intolerable prospect.

What's Ahead

By James Marlow

Russia's Future Weighed

WASHINGTON

It's been like watching a Russian bear eat an electric light bulb.

Surprise, convulsions, indigestion, internal bleeding, thrashing around half out of mind and digestion restored have all been part of the process since the Bolsheviks took over the Russian revolution 50 years ago today.

Surprise — The Bolsheviks were caught flat-footed, unprepared for the takeover when the revolution began. They got themselves together, grabbed their chance, and communism has been in charge ever since.

Convulsion — The beginning was dreadful: The struggle with the other factions which were split and indecisive; civil war; and economic collapse.

Indigestion — Lenin and his Bolsheviks started out as the apostles of Earl Marx. But they twisted Marxism to suit her needs. And Lenin even partly restored capitalism for a while.

Internal bleeding — From the beginning there was a blood bath. It became a hemorrhage in the 1930s with Stalin's purges and executions, his device for eliminating rivals, real or imaginary.

HALF OUT OF mind—Stalin was a mental case, one of the most vicious in history, who reigned through terror for 29 years from the time Lenin died in 1924 until his own death in 1953.

But while terror was his weapon, power was his language. Under him a primitive nation became a world power, with all that meant. For only a brief moment the United States had a nuclear monopoly. Stalin quickly broke it.

Digestion restored — With Stalin's death, some sanity was restored, restrictions were eased, and the Soviet Union began to look a little more like a civilized society, starting with Nikita Khrushchev, later dumped, in the 1950s.

After all this agony the most obvious question, one which must fill every other nation with apprehension, is: What will happen inside the Soviet Union and what will it do in these next 50 years?

No one in his right mind will try to predict it. Through their whole history the Russian people have known nothing but submission to autocracies, some more fierce and bloody than others.

At the moment power is divided among the leaders but nevertheless centered in them. Internal struggles for power among them could resurrect the nightmares of the past 50 years.

The people are asserting themselves a little more, although feebly. Bit by bit they may get more of the freedom they want. Eventually, if the Soviet Union follows the road of the great revolutions of modern times, there will be democracy.

THE MOST civilizing and restraining force in Soviet history in recent times is fear—fear of nuclear war with the United States which reciprocates the same fear.

In time the Soviet Union may surpass the United States as the world's No. 1 industrial power — it's No. 2 now — with increasing prosperity for its people. But the Soviet Union has also suffered a shattering defeat. For most of the past 40 years it not only dominated world communism but the world's thinking about it.

That's gone. Gigantic Red China is its rival and apparently its enemy and is fast on its way to becoming a great nuclear power. When that happens the future of the Soviet Union and of mankind may depend on the answer to this question:

Will it manage to team up with the Red Chinese against the rest of the world or, out of fear of China, will it cozy up to the United States and the West in search of allies against Red China?

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Principal George A. Beck announced that the Patterson Field athletic plant, constructed during 1933-34, had been paid off and plans were being made to finance a broader athletic setup in the future.

Earl E. Powell, a one - time East Liverpool basketball and baseball star, was elected judge of Steubenville Municipal Court.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Sgt. Thayer A. "Doc" Pyle of E. 9th St. was discharged from the Army after five years and seven months.

The first snow of winter was reported from many points of the tri - state district.

The Rev. C. S. Hinton assumed his duties as pastor of the Sheridan Ave. AME Church.

TEN YEARS AGO — Mrs. Alvin Arner was elected president of the United Lutheran Church Women of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, succeeding Mrs. A. E. Stoddard, who was charter president when the group was organized.

Odd Facts

Larva of the stomiatoid fish has eyes sticking out on long stalks, which twist into loops as the fish grows. These eye-stalks eventually become knotted into small capsules in front of the eyes.

Corn meal can fatten oysters as well as swine. The surprising discovery was made recently by marine biologists seeking ways to improve oyster harvests.

A wild golden eagle seldom attacks livestock, National Geographic says. A survey revealed only two lambs as victims in a Montana area that supports 30,000 sheep.

Hancock Housecleaning

It continues to intrigue most area residents that major gambling operations such as The Red Dog on Route 30 near Chester and the Lantern Inn on Route 66 near Waterford Park fall into federal rather than county jurisdiction.

Hard work by Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Internal Revenue Service Agents over several months laid the groundwork for the two raids in which more than 70 men were involved Sunday morning.

The arrests marked the general pattern of gambling citations in Hancock County over the past 20 years — occasional serious raids by West Virginia State Police and largescale arrests by Federal agencies such as in the Jockey Club in 1963.

Hancock authorities stage some visitations—they arrested a Weirton cigar store owner at the time the FBI and IRS men were cracking the security arrangements at the Red Dog where $17,000 in gambling money was seized, along with 14 slot machines, three blackjack tables, five dice tables and two roulette wheels.

But the Hancock County Sheriff's department and Prosecutor's office seem unable to curb the really big shows which draw federal attention, which in fact attract notice throughout the district.

One West Virginia newspaperman wrote last week:

"County and State authorities look the other way in Hancock County where a plush gambling casino is reportedly operating on Route 66 across from Waterford Park. It is strictly big action . . .Pretty girls in mini costumes serve the drinks. According to one source, a sign on the wall reads, 'We promise not to loan money because the banks promise they won't operate dice tables.' "

Plenty of people in Hancock County were aware of the Red Dog and Lantern Inn operations, as well as other illegal gambling and liquor sales in the county which have gained a notoriety throughout this section of the United States as a place "where the action is."

The unsavory atmosphere of criminal activities, the practice of "pay off" and the attitude of hypocrisy (the luxurious Red Dog's liquor was watered, agents reported) which breed in the shadow of these casinos and other unlawful operations hurt Hancock County's good people and its educational and cultural potential and jeopardize the mental and moral standards of young people who become aware of corruption.

The expense of investigating and staffing these raids, then prosecuting the offenders adds up to a big take of revenue which every federal taxpayer should resent.

Hancock County should not depend upon the FBI and the IRS to do its housecleaning. Either the State Police and State Liquor Department should boost surveillance and enforcement in the county, or the Courthouse authorities should decide to do their duty as required by law.

WHY...

Do Stores Start Christmas Before Thanksgiving?

That's a question that's often asked and it deserves a sincere answer!

The Review appreciates the spirit that prompts many of the objections to early Christmas shopping promotions. However, when the reasons for the urge to "Shop Early" are examined, the most critical agree it's MORE than a problem for stores alone. So we're happy to take this opportunity to present some of the problems that confront all stores at holiday time.

Every successful store directs its best effort toward perfecting a helpful service to ALL its customers. And since many customers ask stores to make it easier for them to complete their gift shopping before the crowded-post-Thanksgiving period, Christmas merchandise and displays are brought forward early to accommodate them.

And scarcely a major store in the nation could cope with the store traffic that would be generated if any part of early Christmas shopping was postponed until after Thanksgiving. Even under present circumstances most stores are strained to capacity during the peak of the season, to maintain the kind of store service all shoppers have learned to expect.

When you recall the extremely crowded conditions of stores the final two or three weeks before Christmas the problems becomes evident.

If no early Christmas shopping were done this condition would be multiplied many fold. (Actually there would not be enough room behind store counters for enough sales people to serve shoppers during this period between Thanksgiving and Christmas.)

The same condition exists in regard to the children's visits to Santa Claus. Thousands of children and their parents look forward to their annual visit with him, and unless he make an early appearance, many hundreds would be doomed to disappointment, simply because it's physically impossible to reach him in a shorter time.

Those in the store business know that an extremely large percentage of the Christmas gifts that are selected are items that are in plentiful supply the entire year.

If you were to ask the thousands of retail employees—(and as a group they represent one of the largest employee groups in this area) they would tell you that much of the stress and strain of their Christmas would be relieved if the shopping public would anticipate Christmas shopping throughout the year. (Then you'd seldom hear your friends in retailing remark, "I'm simply worn down to my knees by Christmas Eve.")

Granted that the problem is not a one-sided one it should be recognized that stores are faced with the problems of convenient service to customers, of maintaining helpful employee relations, of providing a place where those of the public who can not, or do not, plan ahead may select the traditional gifts for their loved ones and friends.

We are sure that if all of our storekeepers could chat with you, personally and informally, that you would be convinced of their sincerity, and that in the true spirit of Christmas they would not be criticized for their efforts to perform a helpful service to their shopping public.

WEIRTON — About 450 heard West Liberty State College President Dr. Paul N. Elbin discuss the development of the individual through education at the fourth annual parents' night reception and tea at the college's Hancock County Campus at Weirton High School Monday.

Dr. Elbin commented on the tentative expansion of the branch college program to include classes from morning through night and the addition of buildings solely for college use.

Policy Changes Okayed By Board

Two changes in policy, one concerning scholastic credits and the other truancy, were approved by the Board of Education Monday night.

Under the change, students will receive half - credits for participationg in the choir, band or orchestra.

This is allowed under a change made by the Ohio Department of Education. The state granted permission to allow half-credits for these activities after ruling secondary schools require 17 credits for graduation.

Carl Pelini, assistant superintendent, said schools have until 1970 to comply with the regulation requiring 17 credits.

THE POLICY regarding truancy was changed on the recommendation of Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

The first time a student is truant, the parents will be required to report for a conference with the attendance officer and building principal. The second time, the parents will be notified of the truancy and will be cited to Juvenile Court.

By citing the parents, the board "escapes" extensive problems that might arise if the child were cited. The student can ask for and must be provided legal counsel.

IN OTHER action, Leroy Martin was named head custodian at East Junior High to replace the late William C. Tucker. Martin had been assistant custodian at the building. A letter of condolence will be sent Mrs. Tucker.

The board voted to notify Wilbur Reese he has been released as custodian of Neville School, since he has been absent without leave and has not reported to Supt. Paul Blair since March 7.

The action was taken at the recommendation of the city solicitor, legal counsel for the board.

Reese will be presented a letter citing his release "for neglect of duty and insubordination." The Civil Service Commission will be notified.

The board was told Reese said he was waiting for a compensation claim to be resolved, but school officials said the claim had been disallowed.

Board member Samuel Brown asked if Reese had been injured at work. It was reported he had fallen from a ladder at the school and he claimed the fall aggravated a condition he suffered prior to his employment with the school system.

It was pointed out Reese will be permitted to appeal to the Civil Service Commission if he disires.

Miss Sally Anderson was appointed as a secretary to work in the transportation section. She is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and the Grace Martin Secretarial School at Pittsburgh.

THE BOARD approved a diploma for Miss Dolly Wilson, who was tutored and completed the requirements.

Rental of Westgate cafeteria to the Kiwanis Club was approved. The club will hold a pancake supper Dec. 2.

Harold West, attendance officer, reported 175 cases for October. They were broken down into: Personal illness 39; family illness 2; death in family 4; moving of residence 4; truancy 75; kept out by parents 14; erroneously reported 5; working 21; absent to be in court 9, and poverty and school aid 2. There were 33 conferences with parents and students, 21 legal notices sent and four police conferences, West concluded.

Edna Jones, school nurse, also submitted her monthly report.

THE COLUMBIANA County Budget Commission presented the tax rates for 1968 calling for 4.2 mills inside the 10-mill limitation and 15.7 mills outside the limitation for the general fund, 8 mills for bond retirement and six - tenths mills for repair and maintenance.

The total is 4.2 mills inside and 24.8 mills outside the limitation.

Jack Woomer, board member, said the bond retirement fund was reduced this year, providing taxpayers a four - tenths mill benefit. It will be increased if the balance of the end of the year makes it necessary.

Blair said the Westgate cafeteria receipts during October totaled $7,059, which is a record. On one day, more than 1,200 were served lunch. He commended the cafeteria staff for its work.

The board also commended the cafeteria employes for attending programs and classes on food preparation and handling on their own time.

The next board meeting will be Nov. 20 at 8 p. m.

Sportsmen Elect Kenneth Williams

Officers were elected Monday night during a meeting of the Chester - Newell Sportsmens Club at Chester City Hall.

They are Kenneth Williams, president; William Williams, vice president; Howard Eastham, secretary - treasurer, and Bud Harris and Joe Gruda, new board members.

Howard Lyons was appointed chairman of the farm committee which includes Nobe Miller, Cecil Lynn and Dick Adamson.

Chairman of the feed and cover committee is Wayne Harpold, assisted by Bud Harris, Joe Gruda and Chuck Fairabee.

Harpold said a work party will be held Nov. 26 at 8 a.m.

Club members have volunteered to build feeders for rabbits and stock them with hay. The next meeting will be Dec. 4 at the City Hall.

MOM'S GOT A REPUTATION SINCE SHE GOT HER NEW FLAME.

She has a reputation as one of the best cooks in the neighborhood. And she owes it all to her handsome, easy-going new flame—a modern Gas range.

Mom, the chef, is always dropping names like Burner-with-a-Brain, and Oven-with-a-Mind and automatic rotisserie. And names like broiled filet en croute, spinach souffle, quiche Lorraine and ham mousse.

In fact, Mom's something of a show-off with her "Programmed Gas Cooking." She just puts the food into the oven, sets the time and temperature, and then goes about other business with studied indifference toward her cooking. She can afford a great show of confidence because her Gas oven will automatically stop cooking at precisely the correct moment and keep her dinner piping hot, without overcooking or drying out, until everyone is ready to eat.

Sheets said he helped get Jackson and Canne from the creek, and said he believes Daryl took him there to "soak him up." Under questioning, Sheets said Canne apparently had been sick and was in "bad condition."

SELECTION of the jury — seven men and five women— and an alternate took more than three hours Monday. Twenty - three prospective jurors were examined.

Of the 10 excused, four were on peremptory challenges by the defendant. On three of these occasions, Bauknecht conferred first with the defendant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jackson, seated behind the defense table.

Six prospects were excused for cause: One for prejudice about drinking, one for prejudice about teen-agers' speeding, two were friends of the victim's or the defendant's families, one had business with one of the lawyers and one had to work in a voting place today.

The court and jury left for the scene of the accident at 2:15 p.m. On the jury are Helen Huston, East Liverpool RD 2; Alice Mason, 615 Washington St., Wellsville; Henry A. Lauer and Ted Sanor, Hanoverton; Eugene W. Stoffer, Homeworth RD 1; Agnes Frantz and John Haines, Lisbon; Everett Stackhouse and Lois Lipp, East Palestine; Shirley Guy, Negley; Henry Straub, 603 Olive St., Salem, and Norman R. 30 days hence for the hearing. Notices must be posted for 30 days in such matters.

The changing of the name, sought by those seeking to add "an historical flavor to the area," must be completed by county court action.

President Jack Evans pointed out the court will have no choice in the matter if, after examing petitions and conducting a hearing, it is satisfied a majority of the registered voters living in that portion of precinct 15 known as Pughtown desire the change.

Flowers' petitions contained 80 names. He added there are 127 residents in all who can decide the question.

Five notices of the meeting date were ther turned over to the sheriff's office to be posted in Pughtown for the 30-day period.

If the change is completed, it will return the community's name to that given it by settlers early in the 1800s.

MOM'S GOT A REPUTATION SINCE SHE GOT HER NEW FLAME.

She has a reputation as one of the best cooks in the neighborhood. And she owes it all to her handsome, easy-going new flame—a modern Gas range.

Mom, the chef, is always dropping names like Burner-with-a-Brain, and Oven-with-a-Mind and automatic rotisserie. And names like broiled filet en croute, spinach souffle, quiche Lorraine and ham mousse.

In fact, Mom's something of a show-off with her "Programmed Gas Cooking." She just puts the food into the oven, sets the time and temperature, and then goes about other business with studied indifference toward her cooking. She can afford a great show of confidence because her Gas oven will automatically stop cooking at precisely the correct moment and keep her dinner piping hot, without overcooking or drying out, until everyone is ready to eat.

The resolution shows the tax millage on real estate for next year will total 7.7 mills, producing a total of $330,068. Millage voted outside the constitutional 10-mill limitation by the people totals 4.1 and will produce $177,629. Levied inside the 10-mill limitation is 3.6 mills, which will yield $155,439.

Levied inside the 10-mill limit are: 1.1 mills for the general fund, producing $47,495; 1.9 mills for bond retirement, yielding $82,038, and six - tenths of a mill for police and firemen's pensions, producing $25,906.

Commissioners Meet

Kennedy Park Lease Approved

A lease between Martin Gluchow of East Liverpool and the Hancock County commissioners for the operation of Kennedy Park has been accepted by the Army Corps of Engineers, it was disclosed Monday afternoon when the commissioners met at New Cumberland.

The proposal was submitted some months ago, but had to proceed through various channels before final approval.

IN OTHER business, President Jack Evans reported he has received no reply from the West Virginia Road Commission concerning the placing of guardrails along Route 66 in Newell in the vicinity of the Jefferson school where a landfill exists.

Evans earlier said he had received complaints from residents that the area presents a hazard to pedestrians. He said he forwarded a copy of complaints, along with a letter of his own, to SRC officials in Charleston, but no reply has been received.

The Road Commission will install guardrails on portions of Kings Creek Rd., however, officials have said, as funds are available.

In another communication received by commissioners, it was learned a traffic check of an intersection at Pughtown still shows an insufficient flow of traffic to warrant the installation of a blinker light.

Concerning playground signs in Newell, the SRC believes they are of little value and suggests the installation of a snow fence in that area, it was reported.

Commissioners noted however, the streets of Newell have been paved as promised.

THREE NOTARY applications were approved. They are: Albert Presley of Weirton, a renewal; Pauline Wilson of 522 California Ave., Chester, and William H. Schladen of Lawrenceville.

Seven notary applicants' qualifications were approved.

Contributions to county volunteer fire departments were ordered as follows:

Hancock County Firefighters Association, $850; each department, $1,100, for a total of $10,750. The commissioners will present the nine checks to departments during the county association's next meeting at Newell.

The dog warden reported 76 complaints answered, 73 dogs picked up, 18 dog bite cases and one cat bite case during October.

Approved were $1,500 deputy county clerk bonds for Neva Gibson, Nola Fisher, Mercedes Beatty and Delores Foreman.

Nine erroneous assessments were ordered corrected; six requisitions for miscellaneous supplies for the county extension agent and the county clerk were approved; 24 estates were approved, and an audit of the circuit clerk's office was received.

COMMISSIONERS approved the closing of county offices Friday in observance of Veterans Day and from noon Nov. 22 until 8 a.m. Nov. 24 for Thanksgiving.

Two applications for employment were received, but commissioners were told there are presently no positions available.

The report of the county's bookmobile showed a total circulation between July 10 and Sept. 22 of 6,443 — 1,985 adults and 4,458 juvenile. Total registration for the same period was 150 — 20 adults and 130 juvenile.

The bookmobile's current balance is $5,625.

The sheriff was notified to adjust deposits of the county in various area banks to meet the coverage of each bank. Deposits in some banks are over the prescribed limits, commissioners noted.

Twenty-two probate appointments were made.

Commissioners approved an agreement with the West Virginia Department of Commerce to pay the state for planning. A total of $5,251 was ordered sent as the second of three installments to be paid during a three-year period.

34 city precincts showed 282 ballots actually cast in the first four hours today, against 273 at the same time in 1965. So the turnout today in sampled precincts was only nine heavier than at the same time two years ago.

The largest forenoon vote was reported today at Precinct E of the Second Ward, which cast 69 votes. At the same time two years ago, 2-E had recorded 81 votes. The polling place is at the North Side Fire Station.

Precinct 1-B, which votes at a St. George St. residence, had 60 morning votes today, against 53 two years ago. And 2-I, which votes at a Beechwood home, showed 36 today against 35 in the 1965 municipal election. Precinct 3-C, which votes at Central Fire Station, showed 34 forenoon votes today — the same number it cast in the first four hours two years ago.

Precinct 3-F, voting at a Lincoln Ave. home, showed 27 forenoon votes today compared with 26 at the same time two years ago. There were 28 morning votes in 1-F, which votes at a 1st Ave. home, and 28 in 4-E, balloting at a John St. home. Comparative totals are not available for the forenoon vote in 1965 at 1-F and 4-E.

In 1961, East Liverpool cast 1,824 forenoon votes in a municipal election. Its total vote was 6,620, while the countywide turnout was 30,223.

In the 1959 municipal election, the forenoon vote was estimated at 2,328. The city's total turnout that year was 7,624, while the county cast 30,981. In 1957, East Liverpool's forenoon vote was 1,677. Its total vote hit 6,587.

The city's forenoon vote in 1955 was 1,506 and the overall turnout was 6,356. The city showed 1,803 votes in 1953 in the first few hours after the polls opened. The overall turnout was 6,736. In the 1951 municipal election, there was 1,849 votes in the forenoon in East Liverpool. The total vote was 7,771.

East Liverpool is electing a mayor, Council president, treasurer, auditor, solicitor, four ward councilmen and three councilmen-at-large. It also is naming three members to the Board of Education.

Mayor George E. Willshaw, the Republican incumbent, and Robert Owen, the Democratic nominee, ran a nip - and - tuck race for the same post two years ago. The unofficial tally showed Willshaw the victor by 81 votes. He received 2,886 to Owen's 2,785.

City and village officials also are being elected today in Wellsville, East Palestine, Salem, Columbiana, Lisbon, Leetonia, Rogers, Washingtonville, Hanoverton, New Waterford, Salineville and Summitville.

Townships and school districts also are electing officials. Three countywide tax levy renewals are at stake, as well as renewal of the East Liverpool firemen's levy and a proposed statewide Constitutional amendment on legislative apportionment.

The 168 polling places throughout the county opened at 6:30 a. m. and will close at 6:30 p. m.

Following a long - standing custom, the Election Board will make the usual "flash" count on the East Liverpool mayoral race. Precinct staffs have instructions to make a quick count of the mayoral returns immediately after the polls close and then telephone the totals to the Election Board.

The "flash" count usually is completed before 7:15 — within 45 minutes after the polls close.

Following instructions from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, the board will make the first countywide tabulation on the proposed state amendment. The precinct officials in East Liverpool and Liverpool and St. Clair Townships will send the count on the state amendment and the three countywide levies to the board's office by messenger.

A second report will be sent by messenger on municipal, village, township, state and local Board of Education races and local questions and issues.

At the last comparable election in 1965, the Election Board had finished countywide returns on three state issues at 9:25 p.m. The "flash" count on the mayor's race was complete at 7:12. The overall task of compiling election night returns was finished shortly before midnight.

on public aid to private and parochial schools.

Gov. Roger D. Branigan of Indiana ordered National Guardsmen to the Gary area and the state's Supreme Court later threw out Monday a lower court injunction that would have banned use of the troops to insure a peaceful election.

Boston's nonpartisan mayoralty election also is tinged with the racial issue. Louise Day Hicks, who as a school committee member opposed busing of Negroes to white schools, opposed Kevin H. White, Massachusetts secretary of state.

Man Reported In Incident At Waterford

Various Hancock County authorities today were unable to agree on whether a man was taken into custody at Waterford Park Monday night following some sort of an incident.

Security officers at the track said someone was arrested and taken to the County Jail at New Cumberland, adding the man involved had been sought previously over a small bill owed at the Holiday Inn.

Guards said the matter may have been settled by late this morning and the man released.

The sheriff's office said deputies were sent to the track, but added when they arrived, "There wasn't anyone there."

Chief Deputy Arnie Durham labeled untrue a report that Weirton police had been asked for assistance in apprehending a man who had escaped over the riverbank near the track.

Deputies also said no one was lodged at the jail in connection with any charges at the track.

Howard Graham, an official at the track, said this morning no one was charged nor arrested, and the entire matter was a "misunderstanding."

Weirton police, however, reported a call had been received from county officials that a man in handcuffs had fled the track.

sources said a new North Vietnamese division, the 10th, is known to be along the Cambodian-Laotian border but so far has been avoiding heavy contact with U.S. troops.

In another attack Monday night, Communist mortarmen lobbed 20 60mm mortar rounds into the positions of a U.S. infantry battalion operating near the bloodied district headquarters of Loc Ninh, 72 miles north of Saigon near the Cambodian border. U.S. headquarters said 18 Americans were wounded.

Nearly 200 miles to the north, troops of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division found 60 Montagnard women and children who were among 245 of the mountain ribespeople kidnaped early Monday by an armed band of Viet Cong guerrillas.

The other 185 tribespeople, apparently all men, were still missing. Spokesmen said a company of Viet Cong troops carried off the tribespeople from five villages in the central highlands 250 miles north of Saigon. One hamlet chief was killed during the raid.

The Viet Cong in previous raids have abducted the primitive tribesmen to use them as forced labor for their military units. Seven of the men kidnaped were instructors in the South Vietnamese government's pacification program.

NEW RINGS FROM MOUNTINGS

Every once in a while we like to suggest to our customers the possibility of remounting their diamond or other colored gem rings into a smart, new style. With the rising prices on diamonds and fine gems in general, the total value of your jewelry often increases when put in a new setting. Added to this is the possibility of losing valuable gems from worn mountings. Regardless of how fine your mounting was when new, heavy wear will affect the prongs holding your stones.

If your engagement and wedding ring set dates back ten years or more, you may be interested in having the stones reset into one of the popular fitted styles where the two rings appear to be one large ring. These interlocking mountings come in a variety of designs to compliment every shape hand. Then too, you might like to add a few diamonds to your wedding band to make your set a be-jeweled creation more in keeping with your present position.

Some women feel that they are being un-romantic about their engagement and wedding rings if they change the mounting. This certainly is not true; the romantic legend surrounds the diamond, not the frame in which it is placed. When there are practical reasons for making the change as well, it is certainly a wise policy to look into a new mounting, especially when we now have so many original designs to choose from in every price range. Stop in soon and see us.

East Liverpool is electing a mayor, Council president, treasurer, auditor, solicitor, four ward councilmen and three councilmen-at-large. It also is naming three members to the Board of Education.

Mayor George E. Willshaw, the Republican incumbent, and Robert Owen, the Democratic nominee, ran a nip - and - tuck race for the same post two years ago. The unofficial tally showed Willshaw the victor by 81 votes. He received 2,886 to Owen's 2,785.

City and village officials also are being elected today in Wellsville, East Palestine, Salem, Columbiana, Lisbon, Leetonia, Rogers, Washingtonville, Hanoverton, New Waterford, Salineville and Summitville.

Townships and school districts also are electing officials. Three countywide tax levy renewals are at stake, as well as renewal of the East Liverpool firemen's levy and a proposed statewide Constitutional amendment on legislative apportionment.

The 168 polling places throughout the county opened at 6:30 a. m. and will close at 6:30 p. m.

Following a long - standing custom, the Election Board will make the usual "flash" count on the East Liverpool mayoral race. Precinct staffs have instructions to make a quick count of the mayoral returns immediately after the polls close and then telephone the totals to the Election Board.

The "flash" count usually is completed before 7:15 — within 45 minutes after the polls close.

Following instructions from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, the board will make the first countywide tabulation on the proposed state amendment. The precinct officials in East Liverpool and Liverpool and St. Clair Townships will send the count on the state amendment and the three countywide levies to the board's office by messenger.

A second report will be sent by messenger on municipal, village, township, state and local Board of Education races and local questions and issues.

At the last comparable election in 1965, the Election Board had finished countywide returns on three state issues at 9:25 p.m. The "flash" count on the mayor's race was complete at 7:12. The overall task of compiling election night returns was finished shortly before midnight.

on public aid to private and parochial schools.

Gov. Roger D. Branigan of Indiana ordered National Guardsmen to the Gary area and the state's Supreme Court later threw out Monday a lower court injunction that would have banned use of the troops to insure a peaceful election.

Boston's nonpartisan mayoralty election also is tinged with the racial issue. Louise Day Hicks, who as a school committee member opposed busing of Negroes to white schools, opposed Kevin H. White, Massachusetts secretary of state.

Man Reported In Incident At Waterford

Various Hancock County authorities today were unable to agree on whether a man was taken into custody at Waterford Park Monday night following some sort of an incident.

Security officers at the track said someone was arrested and taken to the County Jail at New Cumberland, adding the man involved had been sought previously over a small bill owed at the Holiday Inn.

Guards said the matter may have been settled by late this morning and the man released.

The sheriff's office said deputies were sent to the track, but added when they arrived, "There wasn't anyone there."

Chief Deputy Arnie Durham labeled untrue a report that Weirton police had been asked for assistance in apprehending a man who had escaped over the riverbank near the track.

Deputies also said no one was lodged at the jail in connection with any charges at the track.

Howard Graham, an official at the track, said this morning no one was charged nor arrested, and the entire matter was a "misunderstanding."

Weirton police, however, reported a call had been received from county officials that a man in handcuffs had fled the track.

sources said a new North Vietnamese division, the 10th, is known to be along the Cambodian-Laotian border but so far has been avoiding heavy contact with U.S. troops.

In another attack Monday night, Communist mortarmen lobbed 20 60mm mortar rounds into the positions of a U.S. infantry battalion operating near the bloodied district headquarters of Loc Ninh, 72 miles north of Saigon near the Cambodian border. U.S. headquarters said 18 Americans were wounded.

Nearly 200 miles to the north, troops of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division found 60 Montagnard women and children who were among 245 of the mountain ribespeople kidnaped early Monday by an armed band of Viet Cong guerrillas.

The other 185 tribespeople, apparently all men, were still missing. Spokesmen said a company of Viet Cong troops carried off the tribespeople from five villages in the central highlands 250 miles north of Saigon. One hamlet chief was killed during the raid.

The Viet Cong in previous raids have abducted the primitive tribesmen to use them as forced labor for their military units. Seven of the men kidnaped were instructors in the South Vietnamese government's pacification program.

Two Autos Damaged In Newell Accident

A rear - end collision in Newell Monday night caused damage to two vehicles.

Cox was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control and will appear next Tuesday before Squire John D. Herron at New Cumberland.

NEW RINGS FROM MOUNTINGS

Every once in a while we like to suggest to our customers the possibility of remounting their diamond or other colored gem rings into a smart, new style. With the rising prices on diamonds and fine gems in general, the total value of your jewelry often increases when put in a new setting. Added to this is the possibility of losing valuable gems from worn mountings. Regardless of how fine your mounting was when new, heavy wear will affect the prongs holding your stones.

If your engagement and wedding ring set dates back ten years or more, you may be interested in having the stones reset into one of the popular fitted styles where the two rings appear to be one large ring. These interlocking mountings come in a variety of designs to compliment every shape hand. Then too, you might like to add a few diamonds to your wedding band to make your set a be-jeweled creation more in keeping with your present position.

Some women feel that they are being un-romantic about their engagement and wedding rings if they change the mounting. This certainly is not true; the romantic legend surrounds the diamond, not the frame in which it is placed. When there are practical reasons for making the change as well, it is certainly a wise policy to look into a new mounting, especially when we now have so many original designs to choose from in every price range. Stop in soon and see us.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Since I take two kinds of pills every day, I carry the bottles in my purse so I am always sure to have them with me.

To keep from digging through my purse in search of them, I put the two small bottles into an inexpensive cigarette case. And the little space on the side that is supposed to carry matches is just right for a tin of aspirins.

Now my medicine is all together and easy to find, and I never worry about the pills spilling.

MRS. WAYNE INMAN.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you ever try frying bacon and draining it on some pieces of bread, then freezing the bread and using it later for dressing?

The bacon grease really adds a tasty flavor to turkey dressing.

MRS. GENE BECKMAN.

DEAR HELOISE: I recently made myself a dress of medium-weight pongee and added a turtle neck collar to it.

I used a single piece of nylon net as interlining for the collar and it has exactly the right amount of buoyancy. It also survives washing in the machine with never a droop.

JANICE WRIGHT.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a suggestion for the mothers of small children who complain about the task of sorting the many pairs of identical socks of varying sizes. I made three nylon net bags with different-colored drawstrings and hung them on the inside of the closet door. I have each child put his soiled socks in his own bag.

When wash days come, I just pull the drawstring tightly and tie. Then toss (as is) into the washer and on into the dryer.

No sorting or confusion later as to which ones belong to whom.

DEAR HELOISE: After grinding cheese in a meat grinder, run two or three crackers through and it will help in cleaning it.

DEAR HELOISE: I've found a use for the third-class advertising mail we're all deluged with these days.

Possibly all families aren't like mine, but the demand for a piece of writing paper has never ended since the children were age three or four and starting to scribble with a pencil.

The whole family uses the so called "'junk mail" for phone messages, notes to one another, and, of course, mother's grocery list.

We keep a whole stack in a shoe box in a convenient place, and our supply is endless.

DARLENE STEPHENS.

DEAR HELOISE: Why do you continually use the words "you all" when you know it's incorrect English?

It must have started a few years before I was born.

The words "'you all" are used six times in the Book of Philippians of the Bible. You can find them in Chapter I, II and IV.

In fact, one of the latest dictionaries which I just received contains this expression.

Bids Studied For Razing Of Hancock Jail

A Follansbee firm has submitted the low bid for razing of the Hancock County Jail at New Cumberland.

Bids were opened Monday afternoon during a meeting of the county commissioners.

The Demolition and General Contracting Co. of Follansbee agreed to tear down the structure, scheduled to be replaced with a new building on the same site, for $5,840.

In all six bids were received. They follow:

Casey Building Wreckers of Pittsburgh, $7,734; Noralco Corp., Pittsburgh, $18,340; Goodall Construction Co., Inc., of Burgettstown, $14,800; Matthew Phillips of New Cumberland, $6,250, without liability insurance, or $7,650 with liability nsurance, and Confort Lumber and Demolition Co. of Steubenville, $6,500.

The bids were taken under advisement to be submitted to the commissioner's architect for study.

A decision may be reached at the next meeting.

An architectural contract was awarded W. A. Curtis of Toledo, Ohio, in August for the new jail, expected to cost $360,000.

Two Plead Innocent In Plane Tickets Case

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two women accused of obtaining two $162 airline tickets by false pretenses have pleaded innocent in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court to receiving stolen property.

The pleas were made Monday by Mrs. Nancy Greene, 29, Willoughby, and Mrs. Joann Morris, also 29, of Euclid. Each was freed on $500 personal bond.

Mrs. Greene is the wife of Daniel J. Greene, former president of Local 1317 of the International Longshoremen's Association, who was convicted of embezzling $11,548 in union funds.

Snow Season's Advent

Police Chief Issues Tips For Safe Winter Driving

Noting the advent of cold weather and the first appreciable snowfall of the new season, Police Chief A. J. Radeschi today issued a series of tips to aid East Liverpool area motorists in their annual battle with winter driving conditions.

He passed along advice furnished by the National Safety Council and endorsed by the International Association of Police Chiefs. The tips include:

1.—Get the "feel" of the road by accelerating carefully to see if wheels spin, or brake gently to see if the car skids. Reduce speed accordingly.

2.—Increase the distance between your car and the auto ahead. It takes three to nine times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry pavement.

3.—"Pump" your brakes to slow or stop—don't slam them on. An intermittent pumping action keeps the wheels rolling and helps maintain steering control.

4.—Make certain your car is equipped with tires with good treads. Better yet, use snow tires, which provide half again as much pulling power in snow as regular tires. Studded snow tires offer still more help on icy surfaces.

5.—Always carry reinforced tire chains in the trunk of your car for use during severe snow and ice conditions. They provide four to five times as much traction on snow or ice as regular tires.

6.—Keep your windshield and windows clear at all times. Replace streaking wiper blades gone "'dead" from exposure to sun, wind and oil road film. Be sure that your windshield washer contains adequate anti-freeze.

MOTORISTS should be certain their heater - defroster systems are working properly with the advent of cold weather, the chief added. The defroster is important in maintaining proper vision, he pointed out.

He also noted that the International Association of Police Chiefs has issued a list of equipment motorists should carry in their trunks during cold weather. It includes: A bucket of sand, a shovel, a tow chain, reinforced tire chains, battery booster cables and flares or other types of emergency lighting equipment.

The hazards of bad weather driving multiply at night, the chief reminded, pointing out that three out of five urban traffic fatalities occur after sunset.

"Rain or fog distort vision and cut down on illumination," the chief reminded. "Driving into swirling snowflakes in a heavy storm is one of the most dangerous of all motoring experiences."

Drivers should make certain that all their auto's lights—headlamps, tail lights, turn signals and dash lights — are operating properly for safety in winter conditions, the chief said.

"'Headlights should be checked for proper alignment, to make certain they do not blind approaching drivers," he said.

Officers Probe Minor Collisions

Two minor traffic mishaps were investigated by East Liverpool police Monday afternoon and night.

A collision at 8 p. m. on St. Clair Ave. at Lincoln Ave. involved a halted 1961 two - door sedan driven by Clyde G. McGaffic, 39, of 817 Orchard Grove Ave. and a 1965 model convertible operated by Rosemary Morris, 20, of 1325 Fairmont St.

McGaffic told police he was halted for a traffic signal when his car was hit from the rear. The young woman reported she halted behind McGaffic but her car drifted forward while she was waiting for the light to change.

A mishap about 12:40 p. m. on E. 4th St. 40 feet east of College St. involved a 1962 model stake truck of Sayre Electric Retailing, Inc., of Market St. and a parked 1966 four - door sedan owned by Everett Faye Gillum of St. Clair Ave., officers said.

Bill Finally Enacted To Replace Equipment

Council finally gave approval Monday night on third reading to legislation which started through the legislative mill Oct. 2, authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to purchase a new carbon feeder for the water department's filtration plant.

The measure was given first reading Oct. 2 and second reading Oct. 16, both times with a 5-2 vote. Councilmen Frank P. Duffy and Floyd Murray opposed the measure, indicating they were displeased with the board's action last summer in ordering the city to vacate a sewage plant garage which had been used for a dog pound.

The measure moved through the third and final reading last night, 6-0. Murray was not present and Duffy switched his vote in favor of the ordinance.

Some notions about clothes dryers are all wet!

They may all look alike. But, there's an enormous difference in clothes dryers. PRICE? Electric dryers cost less to buy... as much as $40 less than the flame-type. DEPENDABILITY? With fewer moving parts and no pilot light, there's less to go wrong. CLEAN DRYING? There's no dirt, no by-products of combustion, no fumes. PLACEMENT? Install a flameless dryer anywhere with one electrical connection. OPERATING COST? Families in this area pay an average of about $1 a month for electric clothes drying. VERSATILITY? Modern electric dryers are flamelessly safe for today's miracle fabrics... yet dry heavy things fast. VALUE? It's America's favorite dryer, preferred by women two to one over flame-type drying. You can move up to electric drying at the lowest cost ever right now, by taking advantage of special money-saving wiring certificates available to our customers. Ask your appliance dealer for details.

Some notions about clothes dryers are all wet!

They may all look alike. But, there's an enormous difference in clothes dryers. PRICE? Electric dryers cost less to buy... as much as $40 less than the flame-type. DEPENDABILITY? With fewer moving parts and no pilot light, there's less to go wrong. CLEAN DRYING? There's no dirt, no by-products of combustion, no fumes. PLACEMENT? Install a flameless dryer anywhere with one electrical connection. OPERATING COST? Families in this area pay an average of about $1 a month for electric clothes drying. VERSATILITY? Modern electric dryers are flamelessly safe for today's miracle fabrics... yet dry heavy things fast. VALUE? It's America's favorite dryer, preferred by women two to one over flame-type drying. You can move up to electric drying at the lowest cost ever right now, by taking advantage of special money-saving wiring certificates available to our customers. Questions Posed On Sewer Work

Council held up final action Monday night on the first enabling legislation for installation of a new sanitary sewer from Ambrose Ave. along Maine Blvd. to serve the new high school and elementary school being erected there.

The measure was given only the first of three required readings after two members, Mrs. Donna Richards Wilson and Norman Bucher, questioned if the city's existing sewers to which it would be connected have sufficient capacity to handle the additional flow.

COUNCILMEN Robert W. Sample and Harold Maylone moved for suspension of the rules and immediate passage of the resolution after it had been read for the first time. But the action was voted down, 4-2. It was opposed by Mrs. Wilson, Bucher, Frank Duffy and James Lowe. Sample and Maylone voted in favor of the motion.

"I have had a lot of complaints on the advisability of installing this sewer on Ambrose Ave.," Mrs. Wilson told Council. "The engineer says the lines will be adequate, so I will take the advice of the experts, at least for the time being. But my sixth sense warns against it. I hope Council will consider this carefully in the future."

"I feel the same as Mrs. Wilson," Bucher remarked. "There is a question whether this line will be hooked into the Bradshaw Ave. trunk line, which appears to be loaded to capacity now. We don't want to create a monster at the junction of Avondale St. and Bradshaw Ave., where the line overflows now sometimes in a heavy rain.

"If there is any other possible way to provide service to this area, I feel we should do it," Bucher continued. "I expect a lot of trouble if it comes down Bradshaw. I will vote for first reading on this now, but that's all."

THERE HAVE been complaints for many years that the Bradshaw Ave. sanitary sewer line is overloaded because some householders have connected their roof downspouts to it, rather than the storm sewer. However, the city never has been able to prove if the situation actually exists.

Council's action last night means that the legislation will be presented for second reading at the next regular meeting on Nov. 20.

The sewer line is designed to serve residences and other properties abutting on Maine Blvd. The resolution of necessity — first legislation presented in any such project — calls for the line to run from Ambrose Ave. along Maine Blvd. to "the north line of Lot 7555 in the Huston Land Co. addition." It provides that special assessments will be levied against owners of abutting property to pay the bulk of the cost.

In the future, the line also is expected to serve a 130 - unit complex for housing for low - income families which the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority expects to build on a tract off Maine Blvd.

IN OTHER business, Council set required public hearings Dec. 18 at 7 p. m. on two zoning questions referred from the City Planning Commission.

One calls for creation of a new R-4 district in the zoning regulations specifically to clear the way for the housing authority to erect a 130-unit "high rise" apartment building for housing for the elderly on a West End tract adjacent to the Freeway. There is no section in zoning regulations now that permits construction of such multi-story structures.

The other question calls for rezoning of several lots on Pennsylvania Ave. at Virginia Ave. from "residential" to "business" use. The commission approved the applications at its last meeting and passed them on to Council for final action.

Bucher commented he believes Council should rezone the entire segment of Pennsylvania Ave. as far east as Boyce St., rather than just the short tract covered in the applications.

"Rather than go at this piecemeal, I feel we should rezone it all the way to Boyce St.," he said. He said some residents of the area did not realize the implications of the rezoning until it had been acted upon by the Planning Commission.

THE MEETING was climaxed with an argument between Duffy and James Lowe, fellow members of the claims committee, over payment of two bills against the city for alleged damage in an overflow of the East End Run.

Duffy asked if legislation had been prepared for payment of the claims, citing a meeting of the committee in which he said they were approved. Lowe, chairman of the committee, said it was decided to confer with Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper before proceeding.

Duffy argued that the committee had the power to proceed without talking with the solicitor.

"I'm not going to pass on any claims without clearing them with Cooper," Lowe replied. "We did that at the first of the year and he overrode us. That meeting with the solicitor has been set for Saturday at 10 a. m."

"Cooper can't override this committee," Duffy said. "I don't like it for the committee to settle something and then have to go to Cooper. If the city would clean the run out often enough this wouldn't happen. The city is responsible for this. Cooper doesn't know anything about this situation. He has never been up there."

The discussion ended with the argument unresolved.

THE CLAIMS committee was given two more bills against the city. Clifford Moore of 410 Maplewood Ave. filed a $75 claim for sewer cleaning performed at his property at 910 Watson Ave. He reported the line's flow was blocked and when he notified the sewage department he was told to hire a plumber to free it. Then it was discovered the blockage was in the city's main sewer, not the line leading from his home, the claim said.

Herbert Purton of 1560 Etruria St. filed a bill for $270.57 for damage he said resulted to the family room and contents at his home when sewage backed up through the drains of a shower and a toilet. He said the water flowed through the drains because a city crew was flushing a sewer in the neighborhood while attempting to locate a manhole.

The finance committee was given two letters from the Board of Public Utilities asking transfer of funds. The board asked appropriation of $1,792 for the sewage department and $10,163 in the water department, mostly to pay salaries, wages and expenses of fringe benefits such as insurance premiums.

Mrs. Wilson asked the street committee to investigate a request for a new streetlight at Illinois Ave. and Cadmus St. Duffy asked investigation of an application for a light at Hart Alley and Oakland Ave.

Soviet Snubs U.S. Plan On Middle East

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Western hopes that a compromise resolution circulated by the United States might break the Middle East stalemate in the United Nations were dimmed today by Soviet rejection of the proposal.

Soviet sources said the American plan, which calls for positive action by both Israel and the Arabs, was unacceptable because it gives the Arabs less support than an earlier draft proposed by six African, Asian and Latin American members of the Security Council.

It could not be learned whether the United States would modify the wording of its draft to meet Communist objections or withdraw it. A British spokesman predicted that in any case it was a "fair bet" that the 15-nation council would meet on the Arab-Israeli conflict before the week is over.

Informed sources said the American plan, like that of the six nations, calls on Israel to withdraw from Arab soil seized in the June war. But it also seeks action by the Arabs to end their 19-year-old state of belligerency against Israel.

The informants said the draft also authorized sending a U.N. representative to the Middle East to try to work out a settlement but did not bind him to specific instructions.

The United States began circulating its plan after the big powers had held weekend consultations with Arab and Israeli leaders.

The major powers took over the problem after the 10 nonpermanent members of the council reported Friday that they had failed to agree among themselves on council action.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg was reported to have consulted on Saturday and Sunday with Lord Caradon, Britain's U.N. representative; King Hussein of Jordan, Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban and Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad of Jordan.

Eban flew to London and met with British Foreign Secretary George Brown. He was due back in New York today.

Attempts by the 10 nonpermanent council members broke down after they tried to reach a compromise between two rival plans.

One, drawn up by Argentina, Brazil, Ethiopia, India, Mali and Nigeria, advanced specific principles for a settlement and ordered the U.N. representative to work out a solution along those lines.

The other, put forward by Canada and Denmark, also called for a U.N. representative, but his assignment was couched in terms that the Arabs found too vague for their liking.

Israel meanwhile wrote the Security Council reporting eight attacks between Oct. 24 and Nov. 5 by "armed marauders" from Jordan and charged the Jordanian government was giving active support and aid to the Arab saboteurs.

The pressure of the atmosphere on the bodies it surrounds, at sea level, is 14.7 pounds per square inch.

Repairs Set For Patterson Field

Contracts totaling $9,185 for reconditioning the Patterson Field stadium were awarded by the Board of Education Monday night.

The board also awarded contracts for installation of dust-collecting systems in two buildings and for painting and blacktop projects at Westgate.

The work at Patterson Field calls for repairs to deteriorated sections, primarily the treads and risers of the steps.

THE BOARD awarded the contract to Joseph J. Graciano & Co. of Pittsburgh for work on three sections. The repairs to Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 at the stadium will cost $1,780; Sections 5, 6 and 7, $3,840, and Sections 8, 9 and 10, $3,565.

John V. Goray, a representative, said an "ironside process" will be used. Deteriorated concrete is removed, with the patching filler a cement containing iron filings. The filings rust and expand, leaving a waterproof patch which does not shrink when the moisture leaves, Goray explained.

The repairs will last from 5 to 10 years, with minor application of similar materials, Goray said. He also noted the need for work to support rods and expansion joints at the stadium and recommended a polysulfide sealer in various places.

Goray said this is a good time of the year to do repair work because the dampness makes it easier to work with the concrete. He said final applications could be made next summer after the stadium dries.

THE BOARD said a custodian will apply a sealer over the stadium next spring, once the Graciano firm completes the patching.

Goray also said the structural beams beneath the stadium should be cared for and suggested a material which would remove rust scale, leaving a film which retards oxidation and provides a suitable base for paint.

E. H. Bellard & Associates, Inc., of Cleveland was awarded contracts totaling $2,811 for the installation of dust - collecting systems at Westgate and East Junior High.

The systems will be installed in the shop areas of the schools. The work at Westgate will cost $1,209 and at East Junior $1,601.

Supt. Paul Blair said this action was recommended by the Health Department.

Richard Smith, a board member, asked if similar systems were being installed at the new high school under construction. He was told the state had deleted this phase when giving approval to the plans.

The addition to the shop area of the new building will be made after the title is received for the school.

The installation of electrical equipment for the dust collectors will cost approximately $700 to $800 more.

—:—

ALSO authorized by the board was a $1,400 blacktopping project at Westgate School.

The East Liverpool Asphalt Paving Co. will do the work on the present gravel roadway which leads to the highway.

It was recommended that a bulletin board in a lower corridor on the left wall entering the cafeteria be moved to another site because of defacing by coins dragged over the surface by students.

It was pointed out that the covering had been replaced under the supervision of Principal Thomas Dixon, but the action had proved only a temporary measure.

A study will continue into the bids made by two companies for the replacement of doors at the main entrance and the junior high entrance at Westgate.

Repairs Set For Patterson Field

Contracts totaling $9,185 for reconditioning the Patterson Field stadium were awarded by the Board of Education Monday night.

The board also awarded contracts for installation of dust-collecting systems in two buildings and for painting and blacktop projects at Westgate.

THE BOARD awarded the contract to Joseph J. Graciano & Co. of Pittsburgh for work on three sections. The repairs to Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 at the stadium will cost $1,780; Sections 5, 6 and 7, $3,840, and Sections 8, 9 and 10, $3,565.

John V. Goray, a representative, said an "ironside process" will be used. Deteriorated concrete is removed, with the patching filler a cement containing iron filings. The filings rust and expand, leaving a waterproof patch which does not shrink when the moisture leaves, Goray explained.

The repairs will last from 5 to 10 years, with minor application of similar materials, Goray said. He also noted the need for work to support rods and expansion joints at the stadium and recommended a polysulfide sealer in various places.

Goray said this is a good time of the year to do repair work because the dampness makes it easier to work with the concrete. He said final applications could be made next summer after the stadium dries.

THE BOARD said a custodian will apply a sealer over the stadium next spring, once the Graciano firm completes the patching.

Goray also said the structural beams beneath the stadium should be cared for and suggested a material which would remove rust scale, leaving a film which retards oxidation and provides a suitable base for paint.

E. H. Bellard & Associates, Inc., of Cleveland was awarded contracts totaling $2,811 for the installation of dust - collecting systems at Westgate and East Junior High.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Two year ago I married a wonderful bachelor. I was 42 and he was four years older. I considered myself lucky to get such a fine man, and I still do.

The problem is his older brother, Arnie. Arnie has had severe emotional problems all his life. Although there are another brother and two sisters in the family, my husband was the one who always made a home for Arnie. I knew when I married that this arrangement would have to continue.

But Arnie was gentle and noninterfering and never created any problems, so I didn't mind.

The past year Arnie has become childlike and cannot be left alone for a minute. I must take him marketing, on all my errands, everywhere. I've had to give up bridge, club work, all the things I used to enjoy because I can't take Arnie with me and I can't leave him home alone.

I don't like to complain, but I'm becoming a nervous wreck. Please give me an answer to this depressing problem. I feel like—A PRISONER IN MY HOME.

Dear Prisoner: Arnie's sisters and brother should work out a program to relieve you, and your husband should call them together and tell them. They should take Arnie to their homes or come to your home and stay with him, or hire paid help to do so. In my opinion, three days a week would be about right.

If they're absolutely no good and refuse to help, by all means hire a sitter for Arnie and return to your social and community activities before your husband has to hire someone to sit with YOU.

Catty Situation

Dear Ann: I share a duplex with a nut. We both rent. This woman has two cats. One is a Persian who wears a diaper when she runs loose in the house. The other is a cross-eyed Maltese who is famous for her contact lenses.

If you think I'm kidding let me assure you I'm not. The nut already has been written up in the papers because of the cat with the contact lenses.

My problem is that the cats are supposed to sleep in their boxes which are in the back hall. Instead, they prefer my baby's carriage. I've asked the woman 10 times to please keep the cats in her kitchen but she says it's not sanitary. When I asked how sanitary it is for her cats to sleep in my baby's carriage she replied, "My cats are cleaner than your baby."

You're the gal with the answers. Have you one for me —SIZZLING.

Deir Siz: Make a muslin cover for the carriage and the cats won't be able to get in. Then check the paper for available duplexes. There are some nice ones around.

Lesson Learned

Dear Ann: I must comment on the mother who made her son wear a sign around his neck saying, "I'm 7 years old and I still wet my bed."

My little boy wet the bed until he was 11. I bought tablets recommended by the doctor. They did no good. I kept him off liquids after 3 p.m. It didn't help. I got him up at midnight. Nothing. My neighbors and friends all had sure-fire remedies. They didn't work.

I'll never forget the morning my son leaped out of bed and ran to me in the kitchen where I was preparing breakfast. His heart was jumping with joy. He shouted, "Mom, Mom come see The bed is dry!"

I realized than that the bed-wetting had made him as unhappy as it had made me. All I could say was, "Thank you, God, for giving me the patience to endure this trial without hurting my child." — LESSON LEARNED.

(AP):-

Dear Learned: It was good of you to write. I hope other mothers will learn from your letter.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Changes In Cub Scout Setup Discussed For Den Mothers

LISBON — Forty den mothers received information about changes in the Cub Scout program Sunday at American Legion Post 275 here.

The afternoon session sponsored by the Columbiana Council of the Boy Scouts was followed by a luncheon served by Mrs. Thomas Fife of the American Legion Auxiliary and her daughter Terry.

Richard Emmerling of East Liverpool, council vice president, presided. D. W. Bailey of Columbiana, president, praised the Cub program in general and stressed the need for men and women to work with boys in scouting.

Bennett D. Taylor Jr. of Lisbon, Council executive, related the story of a fictitious youth, "Billy The Kid," to show how a boy's life is influenced by parents, school, church and scouting. He emphasized the influence scouting has during a boy's formative years.

Mrs. D. J. Kern and Mrs. Jerry McLaughlin, both of Homeworth, advised mothers on activities for an active Cub den. A film on den programming was shown.

The group discussed changes in advancement procedures and rules governing age requirements for becoming a Webelos Cub scout. The 10-year-old Cub scout is now in an intermediate group called a Webelos den, preparatory to becoming a Boy Scout at age 11. Each guest received a booklet about the Webelos.

Taylor served as moderator for a question - and - answer period with Mrs. Kern, Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Earl Smith, council registrar, comprising the panel.

Mrs. McLaughlin urged the den mothers to continue their training by attending courses to be offered by the council's training committee. Mrs. James McKinnon of East Liverpool, council secretary, registered guests.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Two year ago I married a wonderful bachelor. I was 42 and he was four years older. I considered myself lucky to get such a fine man, and I still do.

The problem is his older brother, Arnie. Arnie has had severe emotional problems all his life. Although there are another brother and two sisters in the family, my husband was the one who always made a home for Arnie. I knew when I married that this arrangement would have to continue.

But Arnie was gentle and noninterfering and never created any problems, so I didn't mind.

The past year Arnie has become childlike and cannot be left alone for a minute. I must take him marketing, on all my errands, everywhere. I've had to give up bridge, club work, all the things I used to enjoy because I can't take Arnie with me and I can't leave him home alone.

I don't like to complain, but I'm becoming a nervous wreck. Please give me an answer to this depressing problem. I feel like—A PRISONER IN MY HOME.

Dear Prisoner: Arnie's sisters and brother should work out a program to relieve you, and your husband should call them together and tell them. They should take Arnie to their homes or come to your home and stay with him, or hire paid help to do so. In my opinion, three days a week would be about right.

If they're absolutely no good and refuse to help, by all means hire a sitter for Arnie and return to your social and community activities before your husband has to hire someone to sit with YOU.

Catty Situation

Dear Ann: I share a duplex with a nut. We both rent. This woman has two cats. One is a Persian who wears a diaper when she runs loose in the house. The other is a cross-eyed Maltese who is famous for her contact lenses.

If you think I'm kidding let me assure you I'm not. The nut already has been written up in the papers because of the cat with the contact lenses.

My problem is that the cats are supposed to sleep in their boxes which are in the back hall. Instead, they prefer my baby's carriage. I've asked the woman 10 times to please keep the cats in her kitchen but she says it's not sanitary. When I asked how sanitary it is for her cats to sleep in my baby's carriage she replied, "My cats are cleaner than your baby."

You're the gal with the answers. Have you one for me —SIZZLING.

-:-

Deir Siz: Make a muslin cover for the carriage and the cats won't be able to get in. Then check the paper for available duplexes. There are some nice ones around.

Lesson Learned

Dear Ann: I must comment on the mother who made her son wear a sign around his neck saying, "I'm 7 years old and I still wet my bed."

My little boy wet the bed until he was 11. I bought tablets recommended by the doctor. They did no good. I kept him off liquids after 3 p.m. It didn't help. I got him up at midnight. Nothing. My neighbors and friends all had sure-fire remedies. They didn't work.

I'll never forget the morning my son leaped out of bed and ran to me in the kitchen where I was preparing breakfast. His heart was jumping with joy. He shouted, "Mom, Mom come see The bed is dry!"

I realized than that the bed-wetting had made him as unhappy as it had made me. All I could say was, "Thank you, God, for giving me the patience to endure this trial without hurting my child." — LESSON LEARNED.

Dear Learned: It was good of you to write. I hope other mothers will learn from your letter.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Earnings Dip For Crucible

The Crucible Steel Co. Monday afternoon reported earnings for the 1967 third quarter of $1,074,000, or 25 cents a share, compared with $1,642,000, or 38 cents, a year ago.

Net sales for the quarter were $66,849,000 against $73,237,000 last year.

Net earnings for the nine months were $5,222,000, or $1.22 a share, compared with $9,636,000, or $2.26 a year ago on sales of $217,163,000 versus $238,519,000.

The firm said a retroactive change was made in the accounting for depreciation effectively increasing net income by 8 cents and 23 cents per share for the third quarter and first nine months of 1967, respectively.

In case you missed the score, Alliance was edged 15-14 by Akron St. Vincent Saturday night.

East Liverpool plays at Alliance Friday night to close out its season and no one should take the 4-4-1 record of the Aviators lightly. Included among the wins are a 26-20 decision over Warren Harding and a 20-14 nod over Canton McKinley. The losses were all close, to Struthers 22-14, Massillon 20-14, Cuyahoga Falls 30-22 and St. Vincent.

The Alliance-East Liverpool series is the longest continuous one on the Potter schedule. The two teams have played every year since 1952 and the Potters are 4-11 over that span. The complete series record shows a 16-5-1 record in favor of Alliance. East Liverpool has played Martins Ferry more times, 39, but there was a break in the series between 1957 and 1963. The series with Salem was continuous from 1951 until this year.

AN EAST LIVERPOOL graduate, Denny Burke, had an outstanding game at linebacker for Baldwin-Wallace against Denison. Burke, a junior, blocked an extra point and knocked a Denison blocker into a punt to give B-W possession on the 9 from where they went in for a TD to take a 7-6 lead. Denison ended up winning 37-27.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Upper Arlington's unbeaten Golden Bears zoomed into first place in the weekly Associated Press high school football poll today with Massillon and Cincinnati Roger Bacon in hot pursuit.

The final AP poll to determine the Class AA mythical state champion will be announced next Monday.

The Golden Bears all but had the title wrapped up, but Columbus Watterson, also unbeaten, smached UA 32-0 and with that impressive victory annexed the crown.

Watterson, which has lost three times and is not rated, will be bidding to act as a spoiler this time. If Arlington stumbles, or is unimpressive, either second-ranked Massillon or No. 3 Cincinnati Roger Bacon is close enough to claim the title.

Arlington collected 182 points, 25 more than Massillon received. The Tigers edged Roger Bacon for the runner-up berth by one point.

Massillon, as it did a year ago, burst Steubenville's bubble with a 26-16 decision over the Big Red that sent the River City team skidding from first to fourth.

The Stark County Tigers, beaten only 7-6 by Upper Arlington, clash with traditional rival Canton McKinley Saturday and need a victory to stay in contention.

Bacon, 9-0, should have no trouble disposing of Cincinnati McNicholas, which shows a 2-7 record.

Unbeaten Dover (9-0) holds fifth place, followed by Shelby (9-0), Sandusky (8-1), Circleville (9-0), Cincinnati Princeton (7-1-1) and Toledo St. Francis (7-1).

The Class A ratings came in for a fast shuffle when two of the top ten suffered their first setbacks. But all-winning Versailles held first place, with unbeaten Portsmouth Notre Dame still in a challenging position.

Versailles garnered 124 poll points while Notre Dame picked up 112. Kent State High moved from sixth to third, dropping Dixie one notch to fourth.

Newark Catholic is fifth, jumping all the way from the No. 9 spot.

Rounding out the elite circle are Lorain St. Mary, Milan, Fredericktown, Norwalk St. Paul and Columbiana.

Army QB Steve Lindell Does Nothing But Score

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Steve Lindell is a tall, loose-jointed boy from Minnesota who is bothered by ulcers, hobbles around on a bad ankle, throws a pass like a washer-woman and looks anything but a football hero.

But if it's true that Army travels on its stomach, then it must be Lindell's stomach. He's the fellow who has the Army football team heading toward another fine season.

"He may not be a picture passer and he's no Olympic sprint champion, but he moves the team," Army Coach Tom Cahill said today. "To my mind, he is a wonderful athlete.

"What more do you want of a quarterback?"

Lindell, a 6-foot, 180-pound junior from Princeton, Minn., is the key man on a surprising West Point football team that won eight of ten games last year and has taken six of its seven so far in the present campaign.

Beaten only by Duke and victor over such teams as Southern Methodist, Stanford and the Air Force, the Cadets go for victory No. 7 at Michie Stadium here Saturday against Utah.

"They're big and they score a lot of points," Cahill said of his next opponents. "We expect an interesting afternoon."

Then he added significantly:

"But we're in good shape. Lindell is in good shape—in about as good shape as he can ever be."

Lindell had to be held out of the early games because he was troubled with a stomach ailment that turned out to be ulcers. In the SMU game, won by Army 24-6, he twisted his left ankle.

That didn't keep him from leading Army to a 10-7 victory over the Air Force last Saturday at Colorado Springs.

"Ben Martin (Air Force coach) said it best," Cahill remarked. "He said Lindell is not a very pretty passer but somehow he gets the ball to the target. That's what counts.

USC Still First, Tennessee 2nd

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Southern California Trojans have maintained their huge lead in The Associated Press' major-college football poll. But upcoming this Saturday is a meeting with the giant-killing Oregon State Beavers, eager for another upset.

"They're going to have their hands full," predicts Dee Andros, the Beavers' coach, referring to the big one at Corvallis, Ore.

Purdue and UCLA already have hae their hands full with Oregon State. The Beavers knocked off the Boilermakers 22-14 on Oct. 21 when Purdue held second place in the AP poll.

UCLA, too, was in the No. 2 position until Oregon State rose up and tied the Bruins 16-16 last Satuday.

The setback dropped UCLA into fourth place in the latest voting by a national panel of 40 sports writers and broadcasters.

Southern California, 8-0 after trouncing California 31-12, accumulated 399 points, collecting all except one first-place vote plus one for second. Fifth-ranked Purdue was named the top team by one selector.

Tennessee, a 38-0 victor over Tampa, replaced UCLA in second place while North Carolina State, which beat Virginia 30-8, also advanced one position to third.

Purdue, 6-1 after walloping Illinois 42-9, moved up one place as did sixth-ranked Indiana. The Hoosiers, 7-0, edge Wisconsin, 14-9.

Wyoming, Oklahoma, Notre Dame and Houston round out the Top Ten in that order. Wyoming and Notre Dame advanced one place each while Oklahoma and Houston replaced Georgia and Colorado in the ratings.

Oklahoma defeated Colorado 23-0 and Houston beat Georgia 15-14 last Saturday. The Bulldogs were ranked fifth and Colorado ninth a week ago.

Tennessee faces Tulane, North Carolina State meets Penn State, UCLA plays Washington and Purdue takes on Minnesota this Saturday.

In other games involving ranked teams, Indiana plays Michigan State, Wyoming meets New Mexico, Oklahoma faces Iowa State, Notre Dame plays Pittsburgh and Houston goes up against Memphis State.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis;

1. Sou. California (39)	399
2. Tennessee	308
3. North Carolina S.	283
4. UCLA	274

Indiana Pacers Continue Winning Ways In ABA

By The Associated Press

The Indiana Pacers lead the Eastern Division of the American Basketball Association and the Kentucky Colonels are learning it the hard way.

The Pacers beat the Colonels a third straight time 105-95 Monday night in Louisville, Ky., for their eighth victory in 10 games and increased their lead to two games over Minnesota and Pittsburgh.

New Orleans showed its early domination of the Western Division by outscoring Oakland 136-125 in New Orleans for the Buccaneers seventh triumph against one loss.

There were no National Basketball Association games scheduled.

Kentucky stayed close for 2½ periods before the Pacers opened the gap and maintained about a 10-point lead the rest of the way. Freddie Lewis finished with 33 points for the Pacers while Randy Mahaffey had 23 for Kentucky.

New Orleans spurted to an 81-59 halftime lead behind Red Robbins, who finished with 20 points. Doug Moe helped hold off Oakland in the second half and totaled 31 points.

Denver's victory over Anaheim was sparked by a 14-point output in the second period by Wayne Hightower. The Rockets overcame a 28-27 first-quarter deficit, went ahead 53-48 at halftime and then broke the game wide open with 33 points in the third stanza.

Steve Chubin of the Amigos topped all scorers with 29 points. Lefty Thomas was high for Denver with 28 and Hightower contributed 27.

Mack Jones Arrested In Club Raid

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Approximatey 60 persons, including former Braves outfielder Mack Jones, were arrested on vice charges Sunday.

Jones, 28, who was traded to the Cincinnati Reds during the World Series, was charged with occupying a dive following a police raid at an Atlanta night club.

The Atlanta City Code defined a "dive" as a place where whisky, beer or wine is unlawfully kept or sold and where persons are allowed to come and drink, gamble or commit acts of immorality.

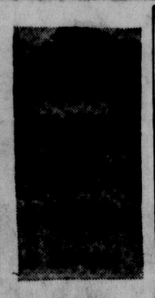

It is separate from the city's disorderly conduct statute.

World Cup Golf Course In Mexico Is Narrow

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Long ball hitters won't have much of an advantage Thursday when play opens in the 72-hole World Cup Golf Tournament at the Club de Golf Mexico.

"This is a very narrow course," said Gary Player of South Africa. "Accuracy will be more important than distance."

Martin Roesink of Holland, one of professional golf's longest hitters, was inclined to agree.

"The fairways are very narrow and it'll be easy to get in trouble," he said. "The ball carries farther at this altitude so even people who normally aren't long off the tee will be getting more distance than they would at sea level. But accuracy will be the most important thing."

Eighty golfers from 40 countries tee off Thursday morning in two-man teams to play for national prestige and personal honor in the 15th running of what used to be called the Canada Cup. Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, the kings of pro golf, are favored to repeat the team championship they won last year in Tokyo.

The park-like Club de Golf Mexico, site of the 1958 tournament, has been stretched to 7,250 yards to make the longest course ever used in the tournament.

Player, 1965 winner of the International Trophy signifying the individual championship, was pleased with the layout after 27 practice holes.

"It's a beautiful course, perhaps the most beautiful the tournament has ever been played on," he said. "But it is difficult. There are a lot of traps and I doubt that the long hitters will open up because the fairways are so narrow."

About half the 40 teams got in practice rounds Monday. The rest were due in Mexico City tonight in time for a dinner at the club. Palmer and Nicklaus, flying in private planes, were expected to be the last to arrive.

Miss Whitworth's prize money for a second-place tie in the Corpus Christi, Tex., Civitan came to $1,387. This raised her total for the year to $42,585 in official and unofficial winnings.

Clifford Ann Creed won the $11,500 Cititan, but the tournament results made no change in the standings. Miss Whitworth is first with $31,517.50 in official earnings, followed by Miss Hayne wth $25,178 and Carol Mann with $22,959,50. Miss Creed is sixth with $17,010.50.

Ladd, Buchanan Team To Intimidate KC Foes

KANSAS CITY (AP) — It's been a long time since Ernie Ladd and Buck Buchanan teamed up together at Grambling, La., College. Now, after two weeks of making adjustments, the two giant Kansas City Chiefs are just what AFL opponents feared.

The Chiefs, bidding to repeat as American Football League champions, have steamrollered, in succession, Denver 52-9 and New York 42-18 after a lackluster start.

Ladd, 6-foot-9 by 290, and Buchanan, the "little" one at 6-7 and 282, line up shoulder-to-shoulder at the defensive tackle spots, intimidating ball carriers and putting a tremendous rush on the passer.

Last Sunday's New York game is a good example. Between them, Ladd and Buchanan had seven unassisted tackles and teamed up on one. Jet quarterback Joe Namath had four passes blocked by Buchanan and was tackled within inches of a safety by Ladd.

"When you have someone with Ladd's size and strength beside you, it makes you more reckless and able to gamble more," Buchanan said. "Just since he's been here I've learned more about this game, little tricks of finesse."

The Chiefs travel to Boston Sunday.

"We're looking forward to meeting Jim Nance," Buchanan said about the Patriots' fullback. "He's the best running back in the league."

In case you missed the score, Alliance was edged 15-14 by Akron St. Vincent Saturday night.

East Liverpool plays at Alliance Friday night to close out its season and no one should take the 4-4-1 record of the Aviators lightly. Included among the wins are a 26-20 decision over Warren Harding and a 20-14 nod over Canton McKinley. The losses were all close, to Struthers 22-14, Massillon 20-14, Cuyahoga Falls 30-22 and St. Vincent.

The Alliance-East Liverpool series is the longest continuous one on the Potter schedule. The two teams have played every year since 1952 and the Potters are 4-11 over that span. The complete series record shows a 16-5-1 record in favor of Alliance. East Liverpool has played Martins Ferry more times, 39, but there was a break in the series between 1957 and 1963. The series with Salem was continuous from 1951 until this year.

AN EAST LIVERPOOL graduate, Denny Burke, had an outstanding game at linebacker for Baldwin-Wallace against Denison. Burke, a junior, blocked an extra point and knocked a Denison blocker into a punt to give B-W possession on the 9 from where they went in for a TD to take a 7-6 lead. Denison ended up winning 37-27.

Columbiana 10, Lisbon Up To 15

By HAL PARIS
Associated Presss Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Upper Arlington's unbeaten Golden Bears zoomed into first place in the weekly Associated Press high school football poll today with Massillon and Cincinnati Roger Bacon in hot pursuit.

The final AP poll to determine the Class AA mythical state champion will be announced next Monday.

The Golden Bears all but had the title wrapped up, but Columbus Watterson, also unbeaten, smached UA 32-0 and with that impressive victory annexed the crown.

Watterson, which has lost three times and is not rated, will be bidding to act as a spoiler this time. If Arlington stumbles, or is unimpressive, either second-ranked Massillon or No. 3 Cincinnati Roger Bacon is close enough to claim the title.

Arlington collected 182 points, 25 more than Massillon received. The Tigers edged Roger Bacon for the runner-up berth by one point.

Massillon, as it did a year ago, burst Steubenville's bubble with a 26-16 decision over the Big Red that sent the River City team skidding from first to fourth.

The Stark County Tigers, beaten only 7-6 by Upper Arlington, clash with traditional rival Canton McKinley Saturday and need a victory to stay in contention.

Bacon, 9-0, should have no trouble disposing of Cincinnati McNicholas, which shows a 2-7 record.

Unbeaten Dover (9-0) holds fifth place, followed by Shelby (9-0), Sandusky (8-1), Circleville (9-0), Cincinnati Princeton (7-1-1) and Toledo St. Francis (7-1).

The Class A ratings came in for a fast shuffle when two of the top ten suffered their first setbacks. But all-winning Versailles held first place, with unbeaten Portsmouth Notre Dame still in a challenging position.

Versailles garnered 124 poll points while Notre Dame picked up 112. Kent State High moved from sixth to third, dropping Dixie one notch to fourth.

Rounding out the elite circle are Lorain St. Mary, Milan, Fredericktown, Norwalk St. Paul and Columbiana.

Army QB Steve Lindell Does Nothing But Score

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Steve Lindell is a tall, loose-jointed boy from Minnesota who is bothered by ulcers, hobbles around on a bad ankle, throws a pass like a washer-woman and looks anything but a football hero.

But if it's true that Army travels on its stomach, then it must be Lindell's stomach. He's the fellow who has the Army football team heading toward another fine season.

"He may not be a picture passer and he's no Olympic sprint champion, but he moves the team," Army Coach Tom Cahill said today. "To my mind, he is a wonderful athlete.

"What more do you want of a quarterback?"

Lindell, a 6-foot, 180-pound junior from Princeton, Minn., is the key man on a surprising West Point football team that won eight of ten games last year and has taken six of its seven so far in the present campaign.

Beaten only by Duke and victor over such teams as Southern Methodist, Stanford and the Air Force, the Cadets go for victory No. 7 at Michie Stadium here Saturday against Utah.

"They're big and they score a lot of points," Cahill said of his next opponents. "We expect an interesting afternoon."

Then he added significantly:

"But we're in good shape. Lindell is in good shape—in about as good shape as he can ever be."

Lindell had to be held out of the early games because he was troubled with a stomach ailment that turned out to be ulcers. In the SMU game, won by Army 24-6, he twisted his left ankle.

That didn't keep him from leading Army to a 10-7 victory over the Air Force last Saturday at Colorado Springs.

"Ben Martin (Air Force coach) said it best," Cahill remarked. "He said Lindell is not a very pretty passer but somehow he gets the ball to the target. That's what counts.

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Southern California Trojans have maintained their huge lead in The Associated Press' major-college football poll. But upcoming this Saturday is a meeting with the giant-killing Oregon State Beavers, eager for another upset.

"They're going to have their hands full," predicts Dee Andros, the Beavers' coach, referring to the big one at Corvallis, Ore.

Purdue and UCLA already have hae their hands full with Oregon State. The Beavers knocked off the Boilermakers 22-14 on Oct. 21 when Purdue held second place in the AP poll.

The setback dropped UCLA into fourth place in the latest voting by a national panel of 40 sports writers and broadcasters.

Southern California, 8-0 after trouncing California 31-12, accumulated 399 points, collecting all except one first-place vote plus one for second. Fifth-ranked Purdue was named the top team by one selector.

Tennessee, a 38-0 victor over Tampa, replaced UCLA in second place while North Carolina State, which beat Virginia 30-8, also advanced one position to third.

Purdue, 6-1 after walloping Illinois 42-9, moved up one place as did sixth-ranked Indiana. The Hoosiers, 7-0, edge Wisconsin, 14-9.

Wyoming, Oklahoma, Notre Dame and Houston round out the Top Ten in that order. Wyoming and Notre Dame advanced one place each while Oklahoma and Houston replaced Georgia and Colorado in the ratings.

Oklahoma defeated Colorado 23-0 and Houston beat Georgia 15-14 last Saturday. The Bulldogs were ranked fifth and Colorado ninth a week ago.

Tennessee faces Tulane, North Carolina State meets Penn State, UCLA plays Washington and Purdue takes on Minnesota this Saturday.

Indiana Pacers Continue Winning Ways In ABA

By The Associated Press

The Indiana Pacers lead the Eastern Division of the American Basketball Association and the Kentucky Colonels are learning it the hard way.

The Pacers beat the Colonels a third straight time 105-95 Monday night in Louisville, Ky., for their eighth victory in 10 games and increased their lead to two games over Minnesota and Pittsburgh.

New Orleans showed its early domination of the Western Division by outscoring Oakland 136-125 in New Orleans for the Buccaneers seventh triumph against one loss.

There were no National Basketball Association games scheduled.

Kentucky stayed close for 2½ periods before the Pacers opened the gap and maintained about a 10-point lead the rest of the way. Freddie Lewis finished with 33 points for the Pacers while Randy Mahaffey had 23 for Kentucky.

New Orleans spurted to an 81-59 halftime lead behind Red Robbins, who finished with 20 points. Doug Moe helped hold off Oakland in the second half and totaled 31 points.

Denver's victory over Anaheim was sparked by a 14-point output in the second period by Wayne Hightower. The Rockets overcame a 28-27 first-quarter deficit, went ahead 53-48 at halftime and then broke the game wide open with 33 points in the third stanza.

Steve Chubin of the Amigos topped all scorers with 29 points. Lefty Thomas was high for Denver with 28 and Hightower contributed 27.

Mack Jones Arrested In Club Raid

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Approximatey 60 persons, including former Braves outfielder Mack Jones, were arrested on vice charges Sunday.

Jones, 28, who was traded to the Cincinnati Reds during the World Series, was charged with occupying a dive following a police raid at an Atlanta night club.

The Atlanta City Code defined a "dive" as a place where whisky, beer or wine is unlawfully kept or sold and where persons are allowed to come and drink, gamble or commit acts of immorality.

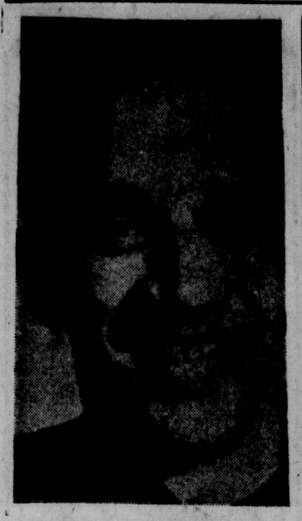

It is separate from the city's disorderly conduct statute.

Wilt Tops NBA Stats In Assists

NEW YORK (AP) — Wilt, oh Wilt, where are you Wilt?

Philadelphia's Chamberlain, the NBA's all-time scoring king, is averaging 13.6 points per game and his total of 109 points isn't enough to get him in the NBA's top 20 much less its top 10.

But Wilt, who didn't even attempt a shot in last Saturday's game against San Francisco, still leads the league in field goal percentage with a nifty .568 average on 46-for-81 and stands third in rebounds and assists.

Jimmy King of San Francisco is the leading scorer with 322 points, while teammate Nate Thurmond tops the rebounders with 313 and Len Wilkens of St. Louis leads in assists with 92.

Chamberlain's 74 assists average out to 9.3 per game—the best average in the league in that department. Wilt has grabbed 190 rebounds — a 24.1 average that ties him with Thurmond for the top par game figure.

Gordie Howe Ties Hull In Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Veteran Gordie Howe of Detroit, belying his 39 years of age with one of his best early-season performances, has moved into a tie with Chicago's dynamic Bobby Hull in the National Hockey League's individual scoring race.

The latest statistics revealed today that Howe, six-time scoring champion, has accumulated 16 points on 10 goals and six assists. Hull, the goal-scoring pacesetter with 11, has five assists.

Howe, in his 22nd NHL season, collected four goals and one assist in last weeks games.

Yvan Cournoyer of Montreal is third in the scoring derby with 14 points. He is followed by Free Stanfield and John McKenzie of Boston, Andy Bathgate of Pittsburgh, Dave Keon of Toronto, Jean Ratelle of New York and Alex Delvecchio of Detroit, all tied with 13 points.

Delvecchio is the leader in assists with 12.

Defenseman Ed Van Impe of Philadelphia is the circuit's bad man with 33 minutes in penalties. The Flyers also have the best goaltending record as Bernie Parent and Doug Favell have combined to yield an average of only 2.20 goals a game.

American Horsemen Top British

De Nemethy riders defeated a crack British team Monday night before a crowd of 10,000 in Madison Square Garden with Kathy Kusner of Arlington, Va., Bill Steinkraus of Noroton, Conn., Neal Shapiro of Old Brookville, N.Y., and Carol Hofmann of North Branch, N.J., handling the reins.

"It was a gamble putting Neal and Carol into the line-up," said De Nemethy. "Neither ever had been in a Nations Cup class in the Garden before.

"But both had been going very well and their horses were as good as I've ever seen them. But I am sure there would have been a lot of criticism if we had lost."

The British, one of the favorites for the Olympic gold medal in Mexico City next year, had won six of nine Nations Cups this year.

The Nations Cup is the most important international class in horse shows. Only one is permitted in each country with the exception of the United States, which, because of its size, is awarded two. The Pennsylvania National Show in Harrisburg has the other Nations Cup in the United States.

Basketball Tickets To Go On Sale

Season tickets for East Liverpool basketball games will go on sale Nov. 13 at the ticket office in the main high school building, ticket manager Harold West announced yesterday.

A ticket to the 13 home games costs $13. None will be sold after Nov. 29. The season opener is Dec. 8 with Bellaire St. John's.

Tickets are still on sale for the annual football banquet to be held Nov. 29 at 6:30 at the St. Al's cafeteria. Tickets may be purchased at Heimie's and Terry's Barber Shop.

Lance Alworth Still Top Pass Catcher

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Five years ago a football player from Arkansas came to the American Football league billed as a baby-faced bolt of lightning.

The 6-foot, 180-pound pride of Little Rock merely continues to do everything that has made him good feature material since his rookie year in the American Football League.

His deer-like leaping catches have been described many times. His nickname of Bambi is well-known to football followers.

He's 27 now but still has that boyish look despite allowing his crew cut to grow out.

And Aworth fees he's outgrown his nickname. His coach, Sid Gilman, says Lance is anything but a timid creature of the forest. A better term, says Sid, is killer—of opposing teams.

Alworth led the AFL in receiving last year with 73 catches and he's caught 41, six for touchdowns, already this campaign.

He performed much of 1966 with a small broken bone in each hand. He began 1967 with a girdle-type device to protect a severely bruised back that kept him out of most preseason games.

Coaches say the key to Alworth's success has been remarkable ability to control his body while running at top speed. The Alworth trademark is a jump and backward reach to snare the ball from a defender who often falls down while Lance prances into the end zone.

Wrong First Names

In the account of the Beaver Local-Toronto game that appeared in Saturday's Review it should have been Dave Doak at quarterback instead of Tom Doak and Ken Campbell as the leading ball carrier instead of Rex Campbell. Tom Doak is the quarterback for South Side Beaver and Rex Campbell is injured and out for the season.

Local Golfers To Compete In Florida

PORT ST. LUCIE, Fla. — George Bloomgren and Frank Dawson will represent the East Liverpool Country Club in the sixth annual Perry Como Amateur Invitational Golf Championship at the St. Lucie Country Club here Nov. 23-26.

The Como tournament, with the TV and recording star as host, is a popular Thanksgiving weekend event with amateur golfers from many parts of the United States and Canada. This year's field has been limited to 380 players — 260 men and 120 women.

The 72 - hole event will be played over the St. Lucie Country Club's two championship courses — the 6,546-yard Saints and the 7,010-yard Sinners. The championship flight in both men's and women's divisions will be played at scratch. All other flights will be at full handicap.

Max Alvis has hit 99 home runs in his career with the Cleveland Indians.

Nicklaus Wants Point Golf Standing

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) Professional golf's leading money winner, Jack Nicklaus, said Monday a financial report is not an accurate measure of a golfer's ability.

Nicklaus said, "There should be a point system. Give a tournament winner 50 points and so on down the line to the last payoff shot, the 50th."

Nicklaus said a player who finished in the top ten three out of four tournaments is a better golfer than one who wins a couple and fails to do much in between.

"In baseball, a .300 hitter is a better player than a fellow with a .200 average who hits a home run now and then," Nicklaus said.

He said even the method of figuring golfers' winnings is faulty.

The PGA lists Nicklaus as having won $188,988 in "official" tournaments—those sponsored by the PGA—and $22,568 in "unofficial" prizes from unsanctioned tournaments.

The PGA figures do not include $50,000 he won in the World Series of Golf. "If you win it playing golf, it's all money," Nicklaus contended.

Nicklaus said as a new member of the Professional Golfers Association Tournament Committee, he will push for a different method of rating golfers.

West Virginia AAA Playoff Scrambled

The big question in the Secondary School Activities Commission is who will make the playoffs in the West Virginia AAA high school division.

The four top - rated teams — Charleston, Bluefield, Fairmont West and Charleston Stonewall Jackson — all stand a chance. Yet none of the teams has clinched a playoff.

First place Charleston needs a victory over fourth - ranked Stonewall Jackson next Friday night to make the play-off. If Stonewall Jackson wins, it could knock Charleston or Bluefield out of the running.

Bluefield has already completed its schedule for regular season play, but might still get a few SSAC bonus points.

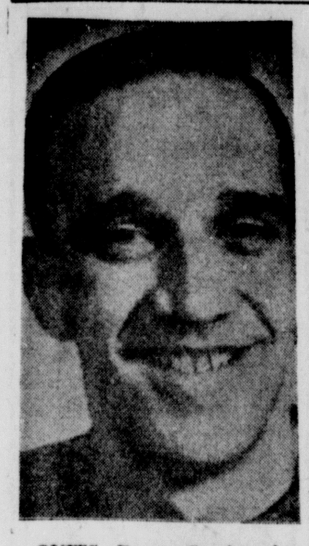

Third - place Fairmont West might just make the playoff with a very big scoring victory over East Fairmont.

In Class AA, Ceredo - Kenova and Monongah will vie for the divisional title in a game to be played at Parkersburg, either Friday or Saturday.

In Class A, Marlinton will take on second - ranked Wirt County at Weston Nov. 18 in a showdown of small school powers.

Gordie Howe Ties Hull In Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Veteran Gordie Howe of Detroit, belying his 39 years of age with one of his best early-season performances, has moved into a tie with Chicago's dynamic Bobby Hull in the National Hockey League's individual scoring race.

The latest statistics revealed today that Howe, six-time scoring champion, has accumulated 16 points on 10 goals and six assists. Hull, the goal-scoring pacesetter with 11, has five assists.

Howe, in his 22nd NHL season, collected four goals and one assist in last weeks games.

Yvan Cournoyer of Montreal is third in the scoring derby with 14 points. He is followed by Free Stanfield and John McKenzie of Boston, Andy Bathgate of Pittsburgh, Dave Keon of Toronto, Jean Ratelle of New York and Alex Delvecchio of Detroit, all tied with 13 points.

Delvecchio is the leader in assists with 12.

Defenseman Ed Van Impe of Philadelphia is the circuit's bad man with 33 minutes in penalties. The Flyers also have the best goaltending record as Bernie Parent and Doug Favell have combined to yield an average of only 2.20 goals a game.

American Horsemen Top British

De Nemethy riders defeated a crack British team Monday night before a crowd of 10,000 in Madison Square Garden with Kathy Kusner of Arlington, Va., Bill Steinkraus of Noroton, Conn., Neal Shapiro of Old Brookville, N.Y., and Carol Hofmann of North Branch, N.J., handling the reins.

"It was a gamble putting Neal and Carol into the line-up," said De Nemethy. "Neither ever had been in a Nations Cup class in the Garden before.

"But both had been going very well and their horses were as good as I've ever seen them. But I am sure there would have been a lot of criticism if we had lost."

The British, one of the favorites for the Olympic gold medal in Mexico City next year, had won six of nine Nations Cups this year.

The Nations Cup is the most important international class in horse shows. Only one is permitted in each country with the exception of the United States, which, because of its size, is awarded two. The Pennsylvania National Show in Harrisburg has the other Nations Cup in the United States.

Basketball Tickets To Go On Sale

Season tickets for East Liverpool basketball games will go on sale Nov. 13 at the ticket office in the main high school building, ticket manager Harold West announced yesterday.

A ticket to the 13 home games costs $13. None will be sold after Nov. 29. The season opener is Dec. 8 with Bellaire St. John's.

Tickets are still on sale for the annual football banquet to be held Nov. 29 at 6:30 at the St. Al's cafeteria. Tickets may be purchased at Heimie's and Terry's Barber Shop.

Wilt Tops NBA Stats In Assists

NEW YORK (AP) — Wilt, oh Wilt, where are you Wilt?

Philadelphia's Chamberlain, the NBA's all-time scoring king, is averaging 13.6 points per game and his total of 109 points isn't enough to get him in the NBA's top 20 much less its top 10.

But Wilt, who didn't even attempt a shot in last Saturday's game against San Francisco, still leads the league in field goal percentage with a nifty .568 average on 46-for-81 and stands third in rebounds and assists.

Jimmy King of San Francisco is the leading scorer with 322 points, while teammate Nate Thurmond tops the rebounders with 313 and Len Wilkens of St. Louis leads in assists with 92.

Chamberlain's 74 assists average out to 9.3 per game—the best average in the league in that department. Wilt has grabbed 190 rebounds — a 24.1 average that ties him with Thurmond for the top par game figure.

Wrong First Names

In the account of the Beaver Local-Toronto game that appeared in Saturday's Review it should have been Dave Doak at quarterback instead of Tom Doak and Ken Campbell as the leading ball carrier instead of Rex Campbell. Tom Doak is the quarterback for South Side Beaver and Rex Campbell is injured and out for the season.

Lance Alworth Still Top Pass Catcher

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Five years ago a football player from Arkansas came to the American Football league billed as a baby-faced bolt of lightning.

The 6-foot, 180-pound pride of Little Rock merely continues to do everything that has made him good feature material since his rookie year in the American Football League.

He's 27 now but still has that boyish look despite allowing his crew cut to grow out.

And Aworth fees he's outgrown his nickname. His coach, Sid Gilman, says Lance is anything but a timid creature of the forest. A better term, says Sid, is killer—of opposing teams.

Alworth led the AFL in receiving last year with 73 catches and he's caught 41, six for touchdowns, already this campaign.

He performed much of 1966 with a small broken bone in each hand. He began 1967 with a girdle-type device to protect a severely bruised back that kept him out of most preseason games.

Coaches say the key to Alworth's success has been remarkable ability to control his body while running at top speed. The Alworth trademark is a jump and backward reach to snare the ball from a defender who often falls down while Lance prances into the end zone.

Nicklaus Wants Point Golf Standing

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) Professional golf's leading money winner, Jack Nicklaus, said Monday a financial report is not an accurate measure of a golfer's ability.

Nicklaus said, "There should be a point system. Give a tournament winner 50 points and so on down the line to the last payoff shot, the 50th."

Nicklaus said a player who finished in the top ten three out of four tournaments is a better golfer than one who wins a couple and fails to do much in between.

"In baseball, a .300 hitter is a better player than a fellow with a .200 average who hits a home run now and then," Nicklaus said.

He said even the method of figuring golfers' winnings is faulty.

The PGA lists Nicklaus as having won $188,988 in "official" tournaments—those sponsored by the PGA—and $22,568 in "unofficial" prizes from unsanctioned tournaments.

The PGA figures do not include $50,000 he won in the World Series of Golf. "If you win it playing golf, it's all money," Nicklaus contended.

Nicklaus said as a new member of the Professional Golfers Association Tournament Committee, he will push for a different method of rating golfers.

West Virginia AAA Playoff Scrambled

The big question in the Secondary School Activities Commission is who will make the playoffs in the West Virginia AAA high school division.

The four top - rated teams — Charleston, Bluefield, Fairmont West and Charleston Stonewall Jackson — all stand a chance. Yet none of the teams has clinched a playoff.

First place Charleston needs a victory over fourth - ranked Stonewall Jackson next Friday night to make the play-off. If Stonewall Jackson wins, it could knock Charleston or Bluefield out of the running.

Bluefield has already completed its schedule for regular season play, but might still get a few SSAC bonus points.

Third - place Fairmont West might just make the playoff with a very big scoring victory over East Fairmont.

In Class AA, Ceredo - Kenova and Monongah will vie for the divisional title in a game to be played at Parkersburg, either Friday or Saturday.

In Class A, Marlinton will take on second - ranked Wirt County at Weston Nov. 18 in a showdown of small school powers.

Soft Spots In Democratic Ranks

Republicans Set Surveys Aiming At House Control

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans are gearing up extensive surveys to target soft spots in Democratic ranks for a $1 million GOP assault in next year's battle for control of the House.

The aim, as explained by GOP strategists, is to pinpoint lackluster Democratic congressmen who get low personality—or recognition—ratings from the voters back home and thus may be vulnerable to an attack by a well-known Republican.

The strategy, said Rep. Bob Wilson, chairman of the republican Congressional Campaign Committee, involves a shift of emphasis from a political seek-and-destroy strategy based on statistics to one zeroing in on personalities.

The GOP group previously channeled its funds and efforts at "target districts" where Democrats had won their House seats by no more than five per cent of the vote.

To plot the 1968 Republican assault on Democratic House control, "We're getting set up to conduct surveys in depth far beyond what we've ever done," said Wilson, a California Republican.

These surveys, he said in an interview, will be designed to measure a Democrat's potential weakness with the voters by gathering this kind of information about him:

"How many newsletters does he send back home; does he make a television-radio report to his district; is he doing his homework; how well known is he in his district?"

While trying to locate weak Democrats, Wilson said, the GOP group is conducting a talent search to find strong Republicans to throw against them.

"It's all based on the old political saw, you can't beat somebody with a nobody," he said.

And in this, the Republicans acknowledge, the name's the thing.

Rep. Robert B. "Bob" Mathias, who won the Olympic decathlon in 1948 and 1952, was "better known in his district than the seven-term Democrat he defeated" when Mathias won a California seat in the House in 1966, Wilson said.

But the Republicans insist they are not confining their talent hunt to peering at old movies in hopes of finding more George Murphys, Ronald Reagans or Shirley Temple Blacks, or scanning Olympic records for another Mathias.

"We're really out on a talent search for outstanding guys," he said. "We're not going to put our money on the line until we know the capabilities of the candidate."

The GOP congressional committee says it now has about $500,000 in its war chest and expects to have $1 million by campaign time.

But the Republicans acknowledge privately that wresting control of the House from the Democrats is easier to predict than to do.

"It's going to be hard," said one strategist. "Most of the soft touches were beaten last year. But I think we have a 50-50 chance. Picking up 31 seats shouldn't be too difficult."

Democrats now outnumber the GOP by 61 members, 247 to 186. There are two vacancies in the 435-member House resulting from the death of J. Arthur Younger, R-Calif., and the exclusion of Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y.

'Not Vicious,' Owner Says As Bear Mauls Girl

CENTREVILLE, Md. (AP) — According to his owner, Yogi, a black bear, is "not vicious" and "won't even eat raw meat." But you'd have a tough time proving that to Thomas Harrahan and his four-year-old niece Rebecca Hincken.

Rebecca was mauled by Yogi's claws and molars Monday but escaped serious injury when four men came to her rescue and beat the bear with an iron fence post.

She was treated and released at a hospital for bruises and skin punctures on her legs and then left by car with her uncle for their Farmington, N.J. home.

Rebecca and Harrahan were standing near the bear's cage which is outside a restaurant on U.S. 301 near Centreville. Harrahan said they were feeding the bear from food in a coin operated machine when the food ran out and the bear grabbed Rebecca.

She was pulled into the cage up to her waist and her slacks were ripped off. Her screams brought her rescuers who battled with the bear for several minutes before they were able to free the hysterical child.

Yogi's owner, David Wharton, said the bear has molars, but no fangs. He said that even though the girl was bitten, no blood was drawn. Wharton said he bought Yogi from the Baltimore zoo four years ago.

Jones Ordered Back To Jail In Race Riot Case

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP) — Negro playwright LeRoi Jones has been found guilty on charges stemming from Newark's July riot. He was ordered to Essex County jail today to continue serving a 30-day sentence on contempt of court charges stemming from his trial.

Jones and two codefendants, Charles McCray, 33, and Barry Wynn, 23, were each convicted Monday of illegal possession of weapons.

They were arrested on July 14, during the height of the rioting, after their camper bus was stopped and searched by police. Two pistols and a box of ammunition were found inside the vehicle, police said.

The conviction carries a maximum sentence of three years imprisonment. Sentencing is set for Nov. 28.

Judge Leon Kapp sentenced Jones to an immediate term of 30 days in Essex County Jail for contempt of court. In the second day of the trial, Jones had referred to the proceedings as a "kangaroo court."

Before and during the trial the bearded, 33-year-old author had been free on $25,000 bail. McCray is free on $10,000 and Wynn on $2,500, pending sentencing.

The defense said it would appeal the convictions and Jones' 30-day sentencing.

Pork Barrel Projects Due Senate Study

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate this week begins considering $52 million worth of pork barrel projects that could carry an ultimate pricetag of $4.1 billion.

The $52 million—included in a $4.7 billion package of public works bills—is the first-year cost of construction starts, new planning starts and the extension of planning projects begun in previous years.

The ultimate cost of those is $4.1 billion—and it will swell the total commitment for pork barrel projects planned or under construction to $15.2 billion.

The dictionary defines pork barrel as a government project yielding rich patronage benefits. Included are the dams, power projects, levee work and harbor construction so dear to a congressman's vote-getting heart.

For a Congress that has talked economy, the final bill is a huge escalation of comparatively modest administration proposals.

President Johnson recommended nine new construction starts that would have cost $7.4 million in the fiscal year that began July 1. Their cost on completion years hence would have totaled nearly $153 million.

The House rejected 4 projects, but added 16 new starts of its own. The 1968 cost of the proposed House projects—$5.5 million. Ultimate cost—$93 million.

The Senate accepted the 21 proposals from the House, restored President Johnson's 4 and added 25 more of its own. Cost of the proposed Senate projects in 1968—$12 million. Ultimate cost—$324.5 million.

Thus as the pork barrel bill now stands, there are 50 new construction starts with an eventual cost of $570.66 million.

Johnson also proposed a score of new planning starts, the step preliminary to actual land acquisition and construction. These would cost just under $3 million in fiscal 1968, but final costs would be $335.5 million.

Each house then added 11 new planning starts. In 1968, the House starts would cost $905,000 and the Senate's $6.19 million. Their respective completion costs are potentially $62 million and $244 million.

On the 80 carryover planning projects from previous years, the bill provides $16.7 million in new planning funds—with a completion cost of $2.8 billion.

Despite the big slice of pork, Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., told the Senate its Appropriations Committee "has deferred the initiation of many worthy projects" because of the Vietnam war.

And Sen. Hiram Fong, R-Hawaii, said that choosing projects to include "is like trying to decide which of your own children should be helped first."

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., on the other hand, called the bill "a travesty of rational economic management and economy in government."

"I am well aware," Proxmire said, "that many of these projects are politically important to members of Congress; but more important, this year should be the achievement of sufficient budgetary cuts to avoid a tax increase. And no area invites cuts as much as public works."

Receipts Boost Palestine Funds

EAST PALESTINE — One of the highest balances ever reported in the city's general fund was revealed at a meeting of Council Monday night.

October receipts pushed the fund balance to $38,000, chiefly due to $12,748 from real estate tax settlements, $1,875 interest on city funds, $1,345 from liquor revenue and $1,100 from inheriance taxes.

The city ended the month with a cash balance of $112,028, officials said.

Council in the brief meeting approved a resolution honoring Fred Hoaglin of East Palestine, Cleveland Browns football team center who will be feted at a 'Fred Hoaglin Day" event Nov. 19 at Cleveland by city fraternal and civic groups.

Surveyor 6 Zips Toward Soft Landing On Moon

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Surveyor 6 spacecraft raced today toward an intended soft-landing in a rugged area almost smack in the middle of the moon's visible face.

Its planned touchdown is in the Sinus Medii (Central Bay), considered a prime astronaut landing site despite its roughness. Surveyor 6 carried a television camera and a small automatic chemistry set to analyze the lunar soil.

The 2,223-pound mechanical marvel soared into space from Cape Kennedy at 2:39 a.m. (EST) today aboard an Atlas-Centaur rocket. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported early phases of the flight were near-perfect as Surveyor 6 started its 65-hour, 231,416-mile journey, its sensors locked on the sun for guidance.

Launch officials reported tracking data showed the rocket had been very accurate in sending the spider-shaped craft into space and that only a minor firing of its midcourse motor later today would be required to place it on target.

If all goes well, the Surveyor will reach the moon about 7 p.m. Thursday.

The launching was the second in a busy space week for the United States. On Sunday, the third applications technology satellite was fired from the cape into a stationary orbit over Brazil where it is to conduct experiments in communications, navigation and weather study.

An East Coast-West Coast doubleheader is scheduled Thursday. The first Saturn 5 super-rocket, being groomed to boost astronauts to the moon, is set for liftoff from the cape at 7 a.m., and the Essa 6 weather satellite is to rocket into space at 12:37 p.m. from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

The lengthy countdown on the 363-foot-tall Saturn 5 started Monday night.

In another launching, the Air Force Monday night fired a Minuteman 2 intercontinental range military missile from Cape Kennedy to test a new Mark 12 warhead system.

NASA hopes Surveyor 6 will break the even-number jinx in soft-landed on the moon, but Nos. 2 and 4 failed.

Benjamin Milwitsky, Surveyor program manager, said the three successful Surveyors have certified as safe three of the four sites which are considered the best landing spots for American astronauts.

Surveyor 6's target, about 190 miles north of the large crater Ptolemaeus is the one not yet photographed. Both Surveyors that failed had been aimed for that area.

Officials planning Apollo man-to-the-moon shots want a string of landing zones across the lunar equator, evenly spaced so that a new target can be selected in case the original launch date is postponed.

Daylight conditions determine the sites and the launch periods. The shadow of darkness moves across the moon during a 14-day lunar night at the rate of 13 degrees daily. The four sites selected are spaced about 26 degrees apart in a band to permit a manned lunar landing mission to be postponed three times and rescheduled at two-day intervals.

Surveyors 1 and 3 explored separate zones in the huge Ocean of Storms in the western portion of the moon, and Surveyor 5 photographed an area in the Sea of Tranquillity in the east.

Soft Spots In Democratic Ranks

Republicans Set Surveys Aiming At House Control

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans are gearing up extensive surveys to target soft spots in Democratic ranks for a $1 million GOP assault in next year's battle for control of the House.

The aim, as explained by GOP strategists, is to pinpoint lackluster Democratic congressmen who get low personality—or recognition—ratings from the voters back home and thus may be vulnerable to an attack by a well-known Republican.

The strategy, said Rep. Bob Wilson, chairman of the republican Congressional Campaign Committee, involves a shift of emphasis from a political seek-and-destroy strategy based on statistics to one zeroing in on personalities.

The GOP group previously channeled its funds and efforts at "target districts" where Democrats had won their House seats by no more than five per cent of the vote.

To plot the 1968 Republican assault on Democratic House control, "We're getting set up to conduct surveys in depth far beyond what we've ever done," said Wilson, a California Republican.

These surveys, he said in an interview, will be designed to measure a Democrat's potential weakness with the voters by gathering this kind of information about him:

"How many newsletters does he send back home; does he make a television-radio report to his district; is he doing his homework: how well known is he in his district?"

While trying to locate weak Democrats, Wilson said, the GOP group is conducting a talent search to find strong Republicans to throw against them.

"It's all based on the old political saw, you can't beat somebody with a nobody," he said.

Rep. Robert B. "Bob" Mathias, who won the Olympic decathlon in 1948 and 1952, was "better known in his district than the seven-term Democrat he defeated" when Mathias won a California seat in the House in 1966, Wilson said.

But the Republicans insist they are not confining their talent hunt to peering at old movies in hopes of finding more George Murphys, Ronald Reagans or Shirley Temple Blacks, or scanning Olympic records for another Mathias.

"We're really out on a talent search for outstanding guys," he said. "We're not going to put our money on the line until we know the capabilities of the candidate."

The GOP congressional committee says it now has about $500,000 in its war chest and expects to have $1 million by campaign time.

But the Republicans acknowledge privately that wresting control of the House from the Democrats is easier to predict than to do.

"It's going to be hard," said one strategist. "Most of the soft touches were beaten last year. But I think we have a 50-50 chance. Picking up 31 seats shouldn't be too difficult."

Democrats now outnumber the GOP by 61 members, 247 to 186. There are two vacancies in the 435-member House resulting from the death of J. Arthur Younger, R-Calif., and the exclusion of Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y.

'Not Vicious,' Owner Says As Bear Mauls Girl

CENTREVILLE, Md. (AP) — According to his owner, Yogi, a black bear, is "not vicious" and "won't even eat raw meat." But you'd have a tough time proving that to Thomas Harrahan and his four-year-old niece Rebecca Hincken.

Rebecca was mauled by Yogi's claws and molars Monday but escaped serious injury when four men came to her rescue and beat the bear with an iron fence post.

She was treated and released at a hospital for bruises and skin punctures on her legs and then left by car with her uncle for their Farmington, N.J. home.

Rebecca and Harrahan were standing near the bear's cage which is outside a restaurant on U.S. 301 near Centreville. Harrahan said they were feeding the bear from food in a coin operated machine when the food ran out and the bear grabbed Rebecca.

She was pulled into the cage up to her waist and her slacks were ripped off. Her screams brought her rescuers who battled with the bear for several minutes before they were able to free the hysterical child.

Yogi's owner, David Wharton, said the bear has molars, but no fangs. He said that even though the girl was bitten, no blood was drawn. Wharton said he bought Yogi from the Baltimore zoo four years ago.

Jones Ordered Back To Jail In Race Riot Case

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP) — Negro playwright LeRoi Jones has been found guilty on charges stemming from Newark's July riot. He was ordered to Essex County jail today to continue serving a 30-day sentence on contempt of court charges stemming from his trial.

Jones and two codefendants, Charles McCray, 33, and Barry Wynn, 23, were each convicted Monday of illegal possession of weapons.

They were arrested on July 14, during the height of the rioting, after their camper bus was stopped and searched by police. Two pistols and a box of ammunition were found inside the vehicle, police said.

The conviction carries a maximum sentence of three years imprisonment. Sentencing is set for Nov. 28.

Judge Leon Kapp sentenced Jones to an immediate term of 30 days in Essex County Jail for contempt of court. In the second day of the trial, Jones had referred to the proceedings as a "kangaroo court."

Before and during the trial the bearded, 33-year-old author had been free on $25,000 bail. McCray is free on $10,000 and Wynn on $2,500, pending sentencing.

The defense said it would appeal the convictions and Jones' 30-day sentencing.

Surveyor 6 Zips Toward Soft Landing On Moon

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Surveyor 6 spacecraft raced today toward an intended soft-landing in a rugged area almost smack in the middle of the moon's visible face.

Its planned touchdown is in the Sinus Medii (Central Bay), considered a prime astronaut landing site despite its roughness. Surveyor 6 carried a television camera and a small automatic chemistry set to analyze the lunar soil.

The 2,223-pound mechanical marvel soared into space from Cape Kennedy at 2:39 a.m. (EST) today aboard an Atlas-Centaur rocket. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported early phases of the flight were near-perfect as Surveyor 6 started its 65-hour, 231,416-mile journey, its sensors locked on the sun for guidance.

Launch officials reported tracking data showed the rocket had been very accurate in sending the spider-shaped craft into space and that only a minor firing of its midcourse motor later today would be required to place it on target.

If all goes well, the Surveyor will reach the moon about 7 p.m. Thursday.

The launching was the second in a busy space week for the United States. On Sunday, the third applications technology satellite was fired from the cape into a stationary orbit over Brazil where it is to conduct experiments in communications, navigation and weather study.

An East Coast-West Coast doubleheader is scheduled Thursday. The first Saturn 5 super-rocket, being groomed to boost astronauts to the moon, is set for liftoff from the cape at 7 a.m., and the Essa 6 weather satellite is to rocket into space at 12:37 p.m. from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

The lengthy countdown on the 363-foot-tall Saturn 5 started Monday night.

In another launching, the Air Force Monday night fired a Minuteman 2 intercontinental range military missile from Cape Kennedy to test a new Mark 12 warhead system.

NASA hopes Surveyor 6 will break the even-number jinx in soft-landed on the moon, but Nos. 2 and 4 failed.

Benjamin Milwitsky, Surveyor program manager, said the three successful Surveyors have certified as safe three of the four sites which are considered the best landing spots for American astronauts.

Surveyor 6's target, about 190 miles north of the large crater Ptolemaeus is the one not yet photographed. Both Surveyors that failed had been aimed for that area.

Officials planning Apollo man-to-the-moon shots want a string of landing zones across the lunar equator, evenly spaced so that a new target can be selected in case the original launch date is postponed.

Daylight conditions determine the sites and the launch periods. The shadow of darkness moves across the moon during a 14-day lunar night at the rate of 13 degrees daily. The four sites selected are spaced about 26 degrees apart in a band to permit a manned lunar landing mission to be postponed three times and rescheduled at two-day intervals.

Surveyors 1 and 3 explored separate zones in the huge Ocean of Storms in the western portion of the moon, and Surveyor 5 photographed an area in the Sea of Tranquillity in the east.

Innocent Plea Given In Dope Case Charge

CLEVELAND (AP) — The 19-year-old son of Cleveland Heights Police Chief Edward Gaffney pleaded innocent Monday to charge of possession and sale of hashish, a narcotic.

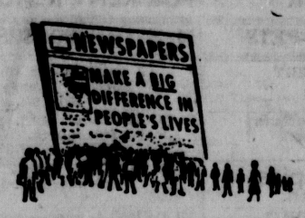

The youth, James Gaffney, gave his address as North Madison, about 40 miles east of here in Lake County.

Also appearing on the charge was Thomas Cook, 25, of Cleveland. He pleaded innocent to charges of possession and sale of marijuana.

They were freed on $2,500 bond each.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of Alice Elizabeth Bosworth who passed away 10 years ago today, November 7, 1957:

I cannot say and I will not say
That she is dead,—she is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingered there
And you—Oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return—
Think of her faring on, as dear;
In the love of there, as the love of here
Think of her still as the same, I say;
She is not dead—she is just away.
—Husband Hollie and Children

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of Alice Elizabeth Bosworth who passed away 10 years ago today, November 7, 1957:

I cannot say and I will not say
That she is dead,—she is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingered there
And you—Oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return—
Think of her faring on, as dear;
In the love of there, as the love of here
Think of her still as the same, I say;
She is not dead—she is just away.
—Husband Hollie and Children

In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson was re-elected in a contest with former Supreme Court Justice Charles Evans Hughes.

In 1918, a false report that Germany had accepted peace terms set off great excitement across the United States.

One year ago — Communist Chinese diplomats walked out of a Moscow celebration of the Soviet revolution — after hearing criticism of the Peking regime.

Junior Editors Quiz on Seaweed

QUESTION: Is seaweed of any value?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: If you have been to the seacoast you will probably have seen some seaweed, which is a large form of the very simple plants called algae. The slippery, rubbery and generally unattractive seaweed does have value. The large seaweed kelp gives a material called alin wghich holds liquids together. In ice cream, for example, algin prevents the water in the milk from forming crystals and keeps the ice cream smooth. It also smooths chocolate milk and salad dressings. Iodine, a useful drug extracted from kelp, makes an important antiseptic. Algae supply an extremely important food for ocean fish, and various seaweeds are eaten and enjoyed by people in different parts of the world. Someday, perhaps, algae may become a valuable part of the human diet. (Don't worry about having to eat "seaweedburgers" when algae is widely used for food, it probably will be chemically treated to taste delicious.)

Junior Editors Quiz on Seaweed

QUESTION: Is seaweed of any value?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: If you have been to the seacoast you will probably have seen some seaweed, which is a large form of the very simple plants called algae. The slippery, rubbery and generally unattractive seaweed does have value. The large seaweed kelp gives a material called alin wghich holds liquids together. In ice cream, for example, algin prevents the water in the milk from forming crystals and keeps the ice cream smooth. It also smooths chocolate milk and salad dressings. Iodine, a useful drug extracted from kelp, makes an important antiseptic. Algae supply an extremely important food for ocean fish, and various seaweeds are eaten and enjoyed by people in different parts of the world. Someday, perhaps, algae may become a valuable part of the human diet. (Don't worry about having to eat "seaweedburgers" when algae is widely used for food, it probably will be chemically treated to taste delicious.)
